FORTY-TWO DEAD IN CAR WRECK

Collision on Traction Line Indiana Blots Out Lives of Many Passengers--Laden Car is Crushed

WRECK ATTRIBUTED TO MISUNDERSTANDING

Cars Meet While Running Full Speed--Ditching Train in Ohio Causes Death

PORT WAYNE, Ind., Sept. 21--Forty-two people were killed and seven seriously injured in a head-on collision between two traction cars on the Port Wayne-Bluffton division of the Fort Wayne and Wabash Valley line today.

The wreck occurred 1 1/2 miles north of Kingsland at a sharp curve. The cars in collision were a northbound local crowded to the steps, which was Bluffton at 11:15 o'clock, and a southbound extra car from Port Wayne. They met while both were running high speed.

The dead: W. E. Boman, Bluffton; A. E. Hyde, Pennville; S. E. Stuck, Vera Cruz; Wm. S. Bears, Bluffton; Lloyd Brown, Bluffton; L. C. Just, Bluffton, general manager of Bluffton traction line; S. H. Robinson, N. Cook, Ernest Crose, Ralph Walker, D. Burvan, Oscar Zinner, Miss Peasey, John W. Tribollet, Miss Bert Tribollet, Thomas Gordon, Harry Nelson, Lloyd Brown, about 18 years old; Mrs. Hiram Foster, Mary Douglas, J. E. Swartz, Joseph Sawyer, Frank King, Mrs. F. King, all of Wagon, Ind.; Jacob Swartz, National Electric Archival, Osasin; Charles Heber, Uniontown; John Johannes Markie; Jesse Hoffman, Marlon; I. S. E. Thompson, Ann Arbor; Mich. Mrs. Myrtle Harlow, daughter of Mr. Polke, Bluffton; Daniel Debach, Port Wayne, Ind.; John Smith and Miss John Smith, Tonpelier; an unknown man; John Beck, Burdette, Ohio; unidentified men; unidentified woman.

The collision is presumed to have been caused by a misunderstanding of orders in regard to the southbound extra car taking a switch near Kingsland so that the northbound car could pass it. The motorman of the two cars had no time to set the brake when they sighted each other. The heavily laden northbound car was crushed and bodies of dead and injured were strewn on either side of the track and the wreckage.

The screams of the injured men and women following the crash of the car brought the neighboring farmers to the scene. Conductor Spiller of the south-bound car was unhurt and ran back toward Kingsland and flagged a car from Indianapolis, which was approaching the wreck at full speed and which otherwise would have plunged into it, adding to the list of the killed and injured in the collision.

Fast Train Ditched
LEMA, Ohio, Sept. 21--Chicago and Erie railroad fast train No. 4, east bound, was wrecked near Connersville nine miles west of here this morning, killing an aged woman and injuring 25 passengers. The smoker, double coach and two pullman cars left the track and were overturned in a ditch 20 feet deep. The track at the point where the wreck occurred had recently been raised several inches.

Mrs. Straifer, an aged woman of Brooklyn, N. Y., was instantly killed while her son, seated at her side, escaped injury.

MURDER WHOLESALE
Woman and Three Children Killed by Miscreant Who Planned to Rob House
WESTCHESTER, Pa., Sept. 21--Mrs. John Zos and her three children, a boy aged seven years and two girls aged seven months and three years, were murdered late yesterday at Byers, a small town about 12 miles from here. Suspicion points to a miscreant who has been employed by the husband and father was the first to discover the crime. While on his way home from the Plumberg mines, where he is employed, Zos saw the body of his son lying in the bushes alongside the roadway. He found that the child had been terribly beaten about the head and was unconscious.
