$27,000 profit out of one central preperty within the last six months to clients purchasing through us. We shall be pleased to disclose the particulars to any investor who may wish to satisfy himself as to the correctness of this statement. We strongly hold that misrepresentation in business is a fatal mistake and submiff the above to indicate one instance—out of many—why we prefer our clients to put their money in central rather than outside property. Unless investors make jolly good profit and quick returns it is all moonshine to expect where their confidence or patronage. R. J. GRIFFITH & CO., 16 King-street East
