

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The question of taking over the telegraph lines is now being discussed in the U. S. Congress. It is claimed by the advocates of the measure, that the telegraph service, conducted in connection with the post office department, would put the latter on a paying basis, and wipe out the present deficit of twenty millions annually. We are inclined to laugh at the slowness of the effete countries of Europe, but Great Britain has made a success of government ownership of telegraphs and telephones, and Canada would do well to do likewise, not forgetting the express service.

The appointment of John Seath, B. A., High School Inspector, as Superintendent of Education for Ontario, is announced, the vacancy caused by his promotion to be filled by Principal Wetherell, of Strathroy Collegiate. There is no question about the scholastic qualifications of the new appointee, but whether they will be equal to the administrative demands of their important positions remains to be seen. Report does not credit either gentlemen with a superabundance of approachableness or a superfluity of amiability. These are qualities they might do well to cultivate if they desire to increase their popularity.

Finance Minister Fielding has sounded a timely note of warning to life insurance policy holders cautioning them against the folly of allowing their policies to lapse on account of the revelations made during the insurance investigation. That there has been mismanagement and extravagance has been proven, but the solvency of the companies is unquestioned, and it would be foolish, indeed, for any policy holder to permit himself to be stampeded by the highly exaggerated reports in circulation in certain quarters. The investigation will have a good effect in disclosing weaknesses in the present system, and suggesting remedies for improvement. Stick to your policy.

Customs regulations are far from popular with the masses, but there are a few particularly obnoxious rules that are a constant source of irritation and the cause of much ill feeling. The American head tax, of two dollars per capita, was intended to be applied against undesirable foreigners entering the country. Official and stupid officers are applying the provisions of the law to parties who have no intention of taking up their residence in the land of freedom? A party from Amherstburg went over to Detroit one day last week to call on a relative in that city for a few hours. He was detained, hauled before a special immigration officer, and had to contribute two dollars to the treasury before he was permitted to go on his way. Another case on our own side of the line, occurred this week. A party of Hindoos, attached to a circus, coming through from Buffalo to Port Huron on a special train, were halted at the border, and not permitted to pass. They would have been in the country about six hours if the fat witted customs officials allowed them to pass. Such regulations existing between two neighboring and friendly countries is discreditable and contemptible.

Raising barns are all the rush this week and Jack Oliver is kept busy. Messrs. Lucas, Forbes and Dewar, London Road, had their barns raised for cement foundations.

Mr. Angus Gordon, townline, lost a valuable mare five years old last week. Running through the orchard she jumped over a wire fence, fell and broke her neck. Mr. Gordon paid a handsome figure for her to Duncan McDougall.

DEATH OF FRED O'NEIL.

Fred O'Neil, aged 56, died in St. Joseph's Hospital, London, Wednesday, after a lingering illness. The funeral takes place at Strathroy on Friday. Mr. O'Neil was one of the best known and most enterprising men in Western Ontario. He was born in North Dorchester and lived for years in Petrolia. He left there in 1875 and settled in Metcalfe Township, on lot 12, concession one, as a farmer. He remained there several years, prospering in his avocation and receiving the confidence of his fellows. He was township councillor for a number of years. Later he moved to Kerwood, where he built up a large butchering business and then built an up-to-date hotel to cater to the needs of the village. His clientele composed travelers and citizens, who always found in him an ideal mine host. As a caterer his fame spread throughout the district.

Two years ago he sold his Kerwood hotel for $7,000 and retired to Strathroy, where he bought a fine residence on Centre street and where he had lived up to the time of his demise. He was highly esteemed and thoroughly trustworthy. In politics he was a loyal Conservative and in religion a member of the Anglican Church. He was a member of the I. O. O. F.

Mitchell—Blackstock.

The residence of Mrs. James Blackstock, 10th line east, Enniskillen, was the scene of a very happy event on Wednesday of last week, the 23rd inst., when her youngest daughter, Miss Nellie Laurena, was united in holy wedlock to Mr. Frederick Mitchell, a popular young farmer from near Watford. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. A. Miller, of Oil Springs, in the presence of about one hundred guests. The principals stood under an arch of evergreens and white lilacs which was decorated with a beautiful heart of pansies. The bride was given away by her brother Fred, the wedding march being played by Mrs. Kimmerly. The bride was gown in crepe de chene over silk, and carried a bouquet of cream roses. She was supported by Miss Phemia Owens, of Wardsville, who wore white crepe de chene over pale blue, and carried white carnations. A little niece of the bride, Miss Cora Blackstock, was flower girl, and looked very sweet in cream silk. She carried a basket of myrtle and apple blossoms. The groom's best man was John W. Blackstock, brother of the bride.

The house was very prettily decorated for the occasion, lilacs and myrtle prevailing. After the ceremony Mrs. Oliver Douglas sang "O Heart of Love," while the guests congratulated the happy couple. The company then repaired to the dining room, where a very sumptuous repast was spread. Six young lady friends of the bride waited on the guests at the table.

The bridal couple left on the 9 p. m. train for Petrolia, and will visit Detroit, Mich., Lafayette, Ind., and other points before they return to take up their residence near Watford. Mrs. Mitchell's travelling dress was of light grey material, with white trimmings. Useful and ornamental gifts, in great profusion, testified to the esteem felt for the bride and groom by their many friends. The guests included friends from Watford, London, St. Thomas, Glencoe, Wardsville, Oil Springs, Alvinston and Petrolia.—Petrolia Advertiser.
