

Edna J. Nott, daughter of William and Electa Nott, was born in America. Married to Elmer Williamson, of Pontiac, Michigan, U.S.A., and they and their children—Lulu, Lena and Edna J.—reside there.

Olive Nott, daughter of William and Electa Nott, was born in America. Married to Emanuel German, of Pontiac, Michigan, U.S.A., and they and their children—Harvey and Mary—reside there.

Stephen Nott, son of William and Electa Nott, was born in America. Married Minnie Frank, of Pontiac, Michigan, U.S.A., where they and their children—Nora, Russell, Josephine, Mildred, Perry and William—reside.

Hattie Nott, daughter of William and Electa Nott, died in infancy.

Benjamin Nott, son of William and Electa Nott, died in infancy.

SECTION VI.—NICHOLAS NOTT'S CHILDREN.

Mary B. Nott, daughter of Nicholas and Jane Nott, was born in England. She emigrated, with her parents, to Pontiac, Michigan, U.S.A., where she and her husband—Charles H. Chapman—and her daughter—Edna J. Chapman—reside. Louis Charles and Guy Amassy, two of their children, died in infancy.

Edna J. Nott, daughter of Nicholas and Jane Nott, was born at Pontiac, Michigan, U.S.A., and resides there.

Ellen A. Nott, daughter of Nicholas and Jane Nott, was born at Pontiac, Michigan, U.S.A. Was married to Charles C. Stewart, of Detroit, Michigan, U.S.A., and they and their children—Nellie Margaret and Janet Hellen—reside there.

Joseph Nott, son of Nicholas and Jane Nott, was born at Pontiac, Michigan, U.S.A., and resides there.

Richard F. Nott, two sons by that name of Nicholas and Jane Nott, died in infancy.