

Address—COUSIN JOY, 282 Princess St., St. John, N. B.

Last month Cousin Joy gave her young cousins something to think of and write about, and she is much pleased to find that two of them have complied with her request so promptly and so well.

Cousin Winnie says: "I think Easter means life, Life for Christ, life for us." That is a beautiful answer and means just what Jesus said of it Himself. "Because I live ye shall live also." He said this to His disciples who felt sad and discouraged because He was soon to be taken from them. But He says it to us, too, to-day, for we are as truly His disciples as Peter and James and John if we really love Him and are trying to serve and please Him.

Little cousin Lucy shows the true Easter spirit when she says: "Easter is the day Jesus rose from the dead; we ought to be very thankful that He died to save us from our sins." Yes, indeed, Easter means joy and thankfulness, as well as life, and in that sense every day may be an Easter day.

You will all be interested in the Field Study this month, for it tells of a dear little girl who, for love's sake, did brave deeds. Cousin Joy thinks that dear little Kathleen will be heard from, in after days, on the missionary field. You must all pray for her, that God will make up to her for the friends she has lost awhile, under such sad circumstances.

Letters and puzzles received for which we have not room this month.

DEAR COUSIN JOY.—We take 20 copies of the PALM BRANCH in our Mission Band and like it very much. Enclosed you will find a puzzle which I would like published, if you think it is worthy.

St. John. Your loving cousin, LOIS BAIN.

You sent us no answer to your puzzle, Cousin Lois. We will print it when you do.

DEAR COUSIN JOY.—The answer to Cousin Alice's puzzle is "Junior Star Mission Band," and to Cousin Zelia's "Friendly Workers." Your loving cousin, Petite Riviere, March 25. BERRY FOSTER.

DEAR COUSIN JOY.—I belong to the "Joyous Workers" Band. My sister takes the PALM BRANCH and I like it very much. We are preparing for an Easter entertainment. I think the answer to one of the March puzzles is "Miss Cartmell," and two of the April ones are "Junior Star Mission Band" and "Friendly Workers." Your loving cousin, Cape Negro, N. S. MYISIE SWAINE.
