

of Immanuel ascend with the smoke of the burning idols. At the same time the hearts of these young converts were burning with desire to carry the gospel to the tribes beyond them.

Western Africa is a most promising field, because her native converts are eager to carry the gospel to the country in the interior. The boys at the love feasts tell the tale of their conversion. Pray God to keep them good—to make them grow up men—and be missionaries to "the other people."

In conclusion, he alluded to the debt of the Society, which is upward of $50,000. There are in the United States, said the speaker, eight hundred thousand members belonging to the Methodist Episcopal Church.—If each one should pay but sixpence it would liquidate the debt, and yet we hear of retrenchment. The mission had been put off last year with $12,000. This is not right. Africa must not be given up. For his part he had buried four children in Africa, and he would ask no other privilege than to be permitted to spend his days there, and at last lie down to his rest with his children by the side of the graves of Cox, and Wright, and Barton, and Stocker, &c., &c.

After the resolution of Mr. Seys had been read, the Rev. Dr. Capers, of Charleston, one of the secretaries, rose and presented the following resolution:—

Resolved, That the missionary cause is not merely incidental to Christianity, but identical with it; and that the obligations of the former are to be measured by the comparative claims of the latter.

Our limits will not permit us to give the very able address delivered by Dr. Capers in support of the resolution.

He said that the missionary cause and Christianity were one; that the mission was but Christianity abroad. He related several touching anecdotes of the charity of some pious women at the south.

He told one of a woman who sold sausages in the streets, and by industry and economy had been enabled to purchase a lot of land. She came to his door one morning and put into his hand $12 25.—This, she said, was one quarter's rent of her land, which she had set apart every quarter for the missionary cause. She must die, but the land would live, and it was to be devoted to the cause of missions.

The resolution of Dr. Capers was seconded by Rev. Mr. Boehm, and adopted, when Rev. Mr. Pitman rose, and said he would offer a resolution, which was, that a collection be taken up, and at the request of one of the trustees he would invite the older preachers to carry round the plates. This invitation was accepted by the following gentlemen: Rev. Messrs. Capers, Seys, Bangs, Beehm, Thomas, Bgelow, Streeter and Griffin.

The gentlemen selected then passed through the church and returned with their plates to the stand tolerably well filled.—We did not remain, however, until it was counted.

After this collection several propositions were offered. The first was to raise $100 by individual subscriptions of five dollars each; this was immediately responded to, and $160 collected in this way.

The second was offered by the Rev. George Lane, the society's treasurer. Mr. L. said that he had ever felt a deep interest in the Liberia mission. He considered the sacrifice of money any one might make as nothing in comparison to that of his brother Seys, who was now ready to give up his home, his family, his life to the cause.—He thought they ought at least to have more missionaries in Africa. He would therefore be one of five to contribute quarterly in advance $500 for a year to the support of a missionary in Africa.

Two gentlemen immediately accepted the proposition, and the plan will be continued open at the other meetings, which are to take place this evening and on Monday and Tuesday next.

It being understood that there are several children in Africa who are named after some liberal benefactors to the cause of missions in this country, a proposition was started to raise a sufficient sum for the support of an African boy named Benjamin Griffin, as a tribute of respect to that gentleman, who is the pastor of the Church in which the meeting was held. The proposition was responded to, and Mr. Seys promised to carry the wish of the subscribers into effect on his arrival at Monrovia.

On Sunday morning, at 10, Canterbury-place, Lambeth, the Rev. Edmund Grindrod, aged 55. He had been engaged in the regular work of the ministry for a period of thirty-six years, and was esteemed and beloved in the circuits, in which, from time to time, he was appointed to labour. He was pre-eminently a preacher, distinguished by soundness of judgment, and integrity of principle. His attachment to Methodism was, once and again, most painfully tried, but never was moved. By reason of what he suffered, in one instance, from this cause, his physical constitution received a shock, from which he never wholly recovered. In 1838, he was sent out as the representative of the British Conference to the Canadian Conference; and, in 1837, he was elected by the suffrages of his brethren, to the honourable office of President of the Conference in Great Britain, of which he had before been secretary. During a long and painful affliction, he was patient and resigned. His mind was kept in great peace. He derived support and comfort from those truths which he had been accustomed to preach to others. His end was exceedingly calm and tranquil. He fell asleep in Jesus without a struggle or a groan. He is numbered among the blessed who have died in the Lord. He rests from his labours, and his works follow him.—London Watchman.

In Sheffield, on Friday, April 22, the Rev. John Wainmley, aged 66. For thirty-eight years he filled the place of an efficient itinerant preacher in the Wesleyan Connection, with great acceptance and usefulness.—became a supernumerary in 1835.—endured much affliction,—and preached his last sermon about three weeks before he fell asleep in Jesus.—Ibid.
