Avords of the Avise.

GoD will not leave us if we do not leave

THANKSCIVING is good, but thanks-living la better.

God's presence in a house makes a cottage a palace.

CONSIDERATION is the first step towards conversation.

Tite character of any religion depends upon its idea of God. THE way to forget our miseries is to re-member our mercies.

ALL things do us good which send as to our knees in prayer.

Wz often need those reproofs which we have given to others. WE are not born for ourselves, and should not live for ourselves. God keeps His people from trouble by keeping them from sin. ALL who are saved love salvation from sin as well as from hell.

An error in the choice of our standard may lead to fatal results.

THOSE who sincerely desire to do then duty shall be taught their duty.

STAGNANT piety, like stagnant water, cannot be in a healthy state.

Ir is only by the elercise of holiness that the heart can be kept from sin.

WHEN the law of God is written in our hearts, duty will be qur'delight.
THE Christian watere consists in watching, guarding and keeping the heart.

IF valuable things were too easily come by, we would not learn to take pains.

So long as we set our affections on things above, things below cannot corrupt us. MURDER is to be charged, not to the hand that strikes, but to the heart that hates.

Ir our eye be ever towards God in duly, His eye will be ever towards us in mercy.

Those who speak the words of truth and soberness need not fear a close examination.

THE consciousness of duty performed gives us music at midnight.

THOSE who are able to hide their religion have none that is worthy of the name to hide.

THOSE who commune much with their own hearts will often have occasion to chide them. Is we take care to keep a good conscience, we may leave it to God to take care of our good name. THOSE who mistake morality for religion, build their hopes of heaven upon a sandy foundation. THE sight of our sins might drive us to distraction unless therewith we had the sight of a Saviour from sin. IF we faithfully serve God, we will have as much worldly prosperify as is for our good and His glory.

IF our troubles do not drive us from our duty to God, they should not drive us from our comfort in God.

SUSTAINING grace shows God's regarding those whom He sustains more than delivering mercy would show it.

My concern is not whether God is on our side, my great concern is to be on God's side; for God is always right.

THE serene, silent beauty of a holy life us the most powerful influence in the world, next to the might of the Spirit of God.

THE realization of God's presence is the one sovereign remedy against temptator. It is that which sustains us, consoles us, and calms us.

WORTH MENTIONING.

When anything worth saying is spoken in that terse and pointed way that bears the impress of honest conviction, we like to he people know the nature of the communication. O'R such a nature is the following from Mr. W. F. Haist, Camden P. Q. Lincola Co., Ontario, Mr. Haist says: "Will great joy over my restored bealth, I would write a few lines concerning that wonderful remedy, St Jacobs Oil. For the last six years I have seen using various medicine internally and extendily but nothing would help me. Finally I procured a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil, which cured measter a few applications. It y mother in-law who has also been a gripe sufferer from rheunausm, and also religied by the use of the Great German Remedy. St. Jacobs Oil is a great dessing to spatering humanity, and I shall do to thing in my power to make known its mean.
