WM. JACK, Secy. & Treas.

Accounts have been sent to our several Agents who are in arrears, but we regret to say, with little success, so much so that we have not received a solitary answer to our twenty letters mailed,—containing accounts to the amount of sixty pounds. Of course this state of affairs cannot be permitted to exist, and we therefore request that Agents will do what they can to collect all debts due.

Where we have no accredited Agent, we hope parties will see it to be a Christian duty to forward their subscription to the Treasurer.

W. JACK, Secy.
