Parish Notes

The Easter Services were, as usual, bright and hearty, and attended by full congregations. At the three celebrations there were 300 communicants, not including those who received privately and on Easter Tuesday. The offerings for the day, as will be seen from the statement above, were considerably in excess of last year.

Nevertheless, the financial statement of the Wardens, which was distributed before Easter, shows a deficit on the year's income. It was strongly felt at the Vestry meeting that an addition to the number of weekly envelope subscribers was necessary to bring the income up to the amount required for church expenses. It is only necessary to call attention to the matter, for there must be many who are under the impression that the Sunday offertory is sufficient for all needs. Let the Wardens know that you are willing to aid them in their responsibility by assuring them of a regular offering each week.

Mrs. Kenrick is sailing for England on the 26th inst. All our readers will wish her bôn voyage! She will be accompanied by Mr. Kenrick, who has had no release from continuous work for over a year, and needs some rest. His place will be taken on four Sundays of his absence by the kindness of the Provost, Professors Jenks and Duckworth, and Mr. Hibbard. We wish him renewed health and strength for the autumn work.

The members of the Sanctuary Guild acknowledge with grateful thanks the following donations towards the Easter decorations:

Mr. F. J. Gosling, $5.00; Mrs. Campbell Reaves, $3.00; Mrs. Charles Nelles, $2.00; Miss E. Boulton, $2.00; Mrs. John Cawthra, $1.00; Mrs. O'Grady, $1.00; Miss Street, 50c.; Miss Patton, 50c.; Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. Bohn, Misses Greening and Ogden 25c. each; Mrs. Da Costa, Mrs. Morson and Miss Keating, Easter lilies; Miss Cayley, lilac bush. Mrs. George Biggar has kindly become a subscriber of $4.00 a year to the flower fund of the Guild.

Some companies are not satisfied with their work until they see their name on it. But the Gardner Paving Co.'s work is so excellent that it speaks for itself. Just see it at 205 John St. and judge.
