

NEEDS AIRING.

"I DON'T like him. He's too fond of airing his knowledge."
 "But consider how moldy most of his knowledge is."

LITERARY CRITICISMS.

MRS. GIDDINGS—"I see no reason why a young girl should not read the 'Kreutzer Sonata.'"
 MRS. PRIMMINS—"Well, I would never let my son marry any girl who had read it."
 MRS. GIDDINGS—"Don't worry about that. No girl who had read it would marry your son."
 —Puck.

THE LIGHTNING CALCULATOR.

CLERK—"I see by the paper that Mr. Payne O'More has absconded—skipped. He owes us sixty dollars."
 "FASHIONABLE" HATTER—"Oh, my heavens and earth! There's twenty dollars dead loss."

"How benevolent you are getting!" observed a visiting friend, as the other tossed a dime to an organ-grinder.
 "Yes," was the reply; "not a dago's past but I give something to the poor."

PUT A CARD IN THE PAPER.

DUTTON—"The pen is mightier than the sword."
 HUTTON—"Yes. You selected that weapon when Hardy challenged you; didn't you?"

Arithmetical Problems.

For Senior Classes and Candidates for Entrance to High Schools and Collegiate Institutes

By G. H. ARMSTRONG,

First Assistant Master Wellesley School, Toronto.

Any typographical errors in the first edition have been corrected. The Entrance Paper for December, 1890, has been added. The answers to all the problems have been appended. No other work possesses these features. Teachers and Inspectors commend it.

I am highly pleased with your Arithmetical Problems for Senior Classes. It suits my Entrance candidates exactly. A book such as this is needed by every Fourth Class pupil.—GEO. KIRK, Head Master M.S., Chatham.

I have just examined your Arithmetical Problems for Senior Classes. The problems are very suitable and the collection must prove very valuable to teachers. I heartily commend it.—G. D. PLATT, B.A., P.S. Inspector, Prince Edward.

After a careful examination of your "Arithmetical Problems for Senior Classes," I find them well graded and very suitable for the purpose intended. The teacher who uses them for home or class work, will save himself a vast amount of labor, and in all probability secure to his pupils much better results.—J. S. DEACON, Inspector, Halton.

I have no hesitation in saying that for the purpose for which it is intended the work is infinitely the best with which I am acquainted. Its strong point, to my idea, is the logical sequence in the problems by which the pupil is almost insensibly led on step by step until he reaches quite a difficult style of question. The printer, too, has done his work very well, and there are but few typographical errors. I shall certainly recommend every teacher in my inspectorate to use a copy.—J. C. MORGAN, M.A., Inspector, Barrie.

AMBITIOUS TEACHERS

Vacation is at hand and many ambitious teachers will desire to supplement their too small salaries by occupying their period of rest from the duties of their schools by engaging in some active out-door employment. There is no more pleasant or profitable means of accomplishing this object than by spending the vacation securing business for The Temperance and General Life Assurance Company.

Its chief officers and most successful agents have nearly all been teachers and know how to appreciate the desire of ambitious teachers. We shall be glad to hear from and assist live men.
