The Grip Company have adopted the Ball Lighting System after trying two other systems.

THE Knights of the Camera, who are now numbered by hundreds all over the Dominion, are always glad to learn of new appliances to aid them in what has been termed by some their friendship pursuit. Be this as it may, by writing to Messrs. J. G. Ramsay & Co., 89 Bay street, Toronto, they can secure one of the most complete catalogues yet issued in Canada, and should it not contain the information they desire the firm will be very pleased to give them any further particulars by correspondence. They will find Messrs. Ramsay & Co.'s stock one of the most complete carried in Canada.

IT BEATS JACK FROST.

DEAR SIRS,—We have used Hagyard's Yellow Oil in our family and know it is a sure cure for lumbago and frost bites. My wife was so bad with lumbago that she could not straighten herself, and Yellow Oil completely cured her. It has been a fortune to us.

STORMING THE HEIGHTS.

THE storming of the Heights of Quebec is a part of the annals of war, and an ancient print, in florid colours, depicts how a great General departed this life on that memorable field of glory. It is a war picture of minor tone, with plenty of gore to embellish it. The smoke of battle lies heavily over the scene, and around about the dying hero, scores of his brave soldiers, wounded, bruised, sprained and bleeding, strongly illustrate the havoc of strife and its attendant suffering. The picture is remarkable, not so much for what it represents as what it omits. In modern times a battle scene would show Samaritans at work, and the rank and file would be better equipped for such emergencies. The British soldiers in the Soudan carried St. Jacobs Oil in their knapsacks, thus not only providing a cure for their hurts and injuries, but also a prompt and permanent cure for rheumatism, neuralgia, sciatica, and lumbago, which so frequently result from exposure.
