Dr. C. Jackson - Respected Sir : I have been troubled with Dyspepaia nearly twenty years, and have never used any medicine that did me as much good as Hoofisnd's Bitters. I am very fluch improved in health, after having taken five bottles.-Yours, with respect,

J. S. HERMAN.

From Julius Leo, Esq, firm of Lee & Walker, the most extensive Music Publishers in the United States, No. 722 Ohesnut street, Philadelphia :

February 8th, 1864.

Messrs, Jones & Evans-Gentlemen-My mother-in-law has been so greatly benefitted by your Hoofland's German Bitters that I concluded to try it myself. I find it to be an invaluable tonic, and unkesitatingly recommend it to all who are suffering from dyspepsia. I have had that disease in its most obstinate form -flatulency-for many years, and your Eminence has been much pleased with the Bitters has given me ease when everything else had of the Lamp, and the position it has taken. failed. - Yours truly,

JULIUS LEE.

From the Hon, JACOB BROOM:

Philadelphia, Oct. 7th, 1863. Gentlemen: In reply to yoar inquiry as to the effect produced by the use of Hoofland's German Bitters, in my family, I have no hesitation in saying that it has been highly beneficial. In one instance, a case of dyspepsia of thirteen years' standing, and which had become very distressing, the use of one battle gave decided relief, the seconding effecting a cure, and the third, it seems, has confirmed the cure, for there has been no symptoms of its return for the last six years. In my individual use of it, I find it to be an unequalled tonic, and sincerely recommend its use to the sufferers.—Truly yours, JACOB BROOM, 1707 Sprace Street.

"THE LAMP,"

New and Improved Series, in Monthly parts, price 9d. Yearly, $1,75. The Lamp in 1865.

It is little more than two years ago since the New Series of the Lamp commenced. The great increase in its circulation has been the most convincing proof that satisfaction has been given by the improvements effected in the periodical. It has been the happings of the Couductor of this Magazine to receive the benediction of the Holy Father on the undertaking. A distinguished Prelate wrote from Rome as follows to the P.oprietor of the Lamp: 'I have presented the Lamp to the Holy Father. He was much pleased, and directed me to send you his blessing, that you and all your works may prosper.' We have also had the assurance of the satisfaction of his Eminence the late Cardinal Wiseman, in whose archdiocese the Lamp is published, and whose kind assistance to the undertaking has been evinced several times by the contributions from his pen which are to be found in our columns. We are anthorised to say that "His Eminence has been much pleased with the progress.

Encouraged, therefore, by the blessing of the Vicar of Ohrist, which is never unfruitful, and the approval of his Eminence, the Conductor of the Lamp looks confidently for increased support from the Catholic public. Much has been done to improve the Lamp; much remains to be done; and it rests chiefly with Oatholics themselves to effect the improvement. Our adversaries, and even we ourselves, often point to the well-got up Protestant publications, and ask why Catholics cannot have something as good in point of material, ability, illustrations, &c. Nothing is more easy. If every Oatholic who feels this, and who desires to to see a Oatholic Magazine equal to a Protestant one, will take in the former for a year, there is at least a good chance of his wishes being realised. If every priest would speak of the under taking in his parish once a year, and encourage his people to buy the Lamp instead of the various cheap publications too rapidly making their way among bur youth, and our poor-pulications which can hardly be called Protestant, because they have no religion, and often openly teach immorality-the success of the Catholic Magazine would be assured It is their immense circulation, and the support they obtain from their respepective political or religious parties, which enables these journals to hold their ground; and unless Oatholics will give their hearty and cordial support to their own periocals in a similar manner, it is impossible for them to attain superiority.

The LAMP has now the largest Oirculation of any Oatholic Periodical in the English language. It contains this week a New Story of great interest and other articles of sterling merit, with illustrations by the first Artists of the day. Price-Yearly, $1,75. In Monthly parts, 9d. Agents for Oanada-Messrs. D. & J. Sadlier & Co., Booksellers, Oorner of Notre Dame and St. Francis Xavier Streets, Montreal, C.E.
