These and other cases prove that the Canada Life affords advantages such as have not been surpassed nor attained by any other company, and intending assurers are invited to carefully examine and satisfy themselves of that fact.

New companies, from heavy expenses of management of comparatively limited business, and other causes, cannot be conducted with the success and large profit results of the Canada Life, nor can they, by any merely different mode of dividing their smaller profits, give their assurers such advantages as the Canada Life has afforded to its policy holders, and a comparison of the above examples of the Canada's profits with the profits given by companies which adopt a different plan of division, will clearly illustrate this.
