BOOTS AND SHOES.—The only business doing has been a sorting-up trade, fairly good for the season, and under existing circumstances.

CATTLE.—The supply of beeves has been rather small, and all offering have been wanted. Choice steers fitted for export, and weighing not under 1,300 lbs., have been less in demand owing to bad advices, but any offering have brought $5.00. Heavy oxen and bulls with light steers and heifers have been readily taken at $4.37 to 4.62. Second class have been wanted for the local market, and have been firmer at $3.75 to 4.25. Third class have been scarce at $3.00 to 3.50. Sheep—Clipped have begun to offer and have been readily taken at $5.50 to 6.00 for first class dressing not under 80 lbs., and at $4.00 to 4.50 for second class, which have been rather scarce. Lambs have been offered more freely and there seems to have been enough in. First class have continued to sell well at from $3.50 to $4.00; but second class have been easier at $2.50 to 3.00. Third class are not wanted. Calves—A steady demand has been maintained for all offering. First class dressing from 120 lbs. upwards have been firm at $7.50 to 9.00; and second class have been firmer at $4.50 to 6.50. Third class are utterly unsaleable.

FLOUR AND MEAL.—Flour—Stocks in store, 9,460 bbls against 12,400 bbls last week, and 34,262 bbls on like date last year. The market has been very quiet all week; offerings have been small and the demand generally has been slack. Superior extra has been quiet but steady at $4.40 to $4.50. Extra has been quiet and easier, and sold at equal to $4.20 here. Fancy and strong bakers have been nominal at about $4.10. Spring extra lying on
