Mercantile Summary.

MR. CHAS. C. CORNELL, long connected with the wholesale paint and colour firm of John Mc-Arthur & Son, Montreal, has been admitted to an interest in the business.

J. W. THOMPSON, a Montreal grocer in a small way, has called a meeting of his creditors, and it is understood will assign. His liabilities are about $1500, with nominal assets of about $1100.

T. G. SOMERVILLE, of Fitzroy Harbor, a storekeeper with a business record of some 20 years without previous failure, has assigned in trust to S. C. Fatt of Montreal. He owes about $4,500, and shows apparent assets of about $4000. He is likely to effect a composition.

THE Customs officials at Montreal are evidently upon the qui vive, as shown by the several recent seizures, and determined to subject parties infringing the laws to the severest penalties. A Pullman Car porter, detected in the act of smuggling a parcel of watches and jewelry from New York, has just been sentenced to eight days' confinement, and a fine of $100; the prisoner to be detained until the fine be paid. It is reported upon what is believed to be credible authority, that the Government has ordered the confiscation of the large consignment of demijohns—purporting to contain vinegar, but a large proportion of which held spirits of wine, —shipped to Hartlaub, Smith & Co., of Montreal, from Bremen. With regard to the seizure of Persian lamb skins, nothing definite has yet been decided, a mass of conflicting evidence being under investigation.
