SUMMARY OF AGREEMENTS OF BRETTON WOODS CONFERENCE

This Conference at Bretton Woods, representing nearly all the peoples of the world, has considered matters of international money and finance which are important for peace and prosperity. The Conference has agreed on the problems needing attention, the measures which should be taken, and the forms of international of international co-operation or organization which are required. The agreement reached and the same that the same ment reached on these large and complex matters is without precedent in the history of international economic relations.

I. The International Monetary Fund

Since foreign trade affects the standard of life of every people, all countries have a vital interest in the system of exchange of national currencies and the regulations and conditions which govern its working. Because these monetary transactions are international exchanges, the nations must agree on the basic rules which govern the exchanges if the system is to work smoothly. When they do not agree, and when single nations and small groups of nations attempt by special and different regulations of the foreign exchanges to gain trade advantages, the result is instability, a reduced volume of foreign trade, and damage to national economics. damage to national economies. This course of action is likely to lead to economic warfare and to endanger the world's peace.

The Conference has therefore agreed that broad international action necessary to maintain an international monetary system which will promote foreign trade. The national monetary system which will promote the promote trade. foreign trade. The nations should consult and agree on international monetary changes which affect each other. They should outlaw practices which are agreed to be harmful to would not be a second not be a second not be a second not be agreed not be a second not be a s to be harmful to world prosperity, and they should assist each other to over come short-term exchange difficulties.

The Conference has agreed that the nations here represented should establish for these purposes a permanent international body, The International Monetary Fund with powers and Monetary Fund, with powers and resources adequate to perform the tasks assigned to it. Agreement has been reached concerning these powers and resources and the additional obligations which the resources are purposed as a permanent international body, The International body, The International body, The International body, The International body and the sale of the resources and the additional obligations which the member countries should undertake. Draft Articles of Agreement undertake. Draft Articles of Agreement on these points have been prepared.

II. The International Bank for Reconstruction and Development

It is in the interest of all nations that post-war reconstruction should be development of the rapid. Likewise, the development of the resources of particular regions is the general economic interest. Programment the general economic interest. Programs of reconstruction and development will speed economic progress events will speed economic progress everywhere, will aid political stability and foster peace.

The Conference has agreed that expanded international investment in the state of the second of the s essential to provide a portion of the capital necessary for reconstruction and development.

The Conference has further agreed that the nations should co-operate to increase the volume of foreign investment for these purposes, made through normal business channels. It is considered normal business channels. It is especially important that the nations should co-operate to share the risks of such facility in the control of the state of such facility in the control of the state of such facility in the control of the state of such facility in the control of the state of such facility in the control of the state of such facility in the control of the state of such facility in the control of the state of such facility in the control of the state of such facility in the control of the state of such facility in the control of the state of such facility in the control of the state of such facility in the control of the state of such facility in the control of the state of such facility in the control of the state of such facility in the control of the state of such facility in the control of the state of such facility in co-operate to share the risks of such foreign investment, since the benefits are general.