

to treat the veterans properly, its reckless spending of public funds, and its refusal to reduce taxes for the needy. Now we see it inviting a perilous situation, for example, the creation of wide expanses of ocean that it is going to have to control and with which it is going to be totally incapable of dealing. I see but little sign of increased capacity in our waterborne strength, certainly none to

The Budget—Mr. D. W. Munro match that which is involved in our extended responsibility.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Penner): Order, please. It being six o'clock this House stands adjourned until two o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

At 6 p.m. the House adjourned, without question put, pursuant to Standing Order.