

say this: Never underestimate the contribution that each of you is making to the Government of Canada by your enthusiastic participation in the work of the Senate. You are doing a wonderful job. All one has to do is read Senate Hansard and the proceedings of our committees to understand the fantastic amount of good, detailed and hard work carried out by the eight important Senate committees. It is a magnificent contribution to Canada. While wrestling with the present constitutional problem, never hesitate to show your pride in being senators.
