

Two members of the Ontario Legislature promised to bring a question on this matter before the House at last session - and both failed me.

For a while, Sir, I believe agree that the members of the Court should be charged as a whole, and Sir Edward Osler and his son, Jordan Osler, to say nothing of women, they would not allow such things to be said about them in print, if they could refute them: the story I tell would be difficult of invention. For a while then concerning it they will perhaps whisper "black mail" but that could hardly have weight with any but those who desire to be deceived.

If Sir, you discuss my charges with any of the cult I would suggest
