

Sir Robert Falconer - 2 -

The Universities, therefore, are not expected to exercise any measure of control over the holder of such a title.

I shall be very grateful if you will give this matter your consideration and will welcome any suggestions you have to make on what is, without doubt, a most important subject.

With all kind wishes, I am,

Yours faithfully,

Principal.