

	PAGE
Amsterdam	79
The Levant Company	80
Lisbon	81
Leghorn. Difficulties in the way of appointing a Chaplain there. Basil Kennett appointed	82
The dangers which threatened him from the Church of Rome .	83
The courage with which they were met. Lord Sunderland's Letter	84
The admirable discharge of his duties by Basil Kennett . .	85
Kennett's failing health. Difficulties in the appointment of his successor	86
Petition thereon. Attempts to defeat it	87
Taubman at length appointed successor to Kennett . . .	88
Important character of these transactions	89
The intolerance of the Church of Rome exhibited therein .	91
Newfoundland. For a long time neglected	93
Now cared for. Aid extended to it by the Society . . .	94
The Rev. Mr. Jackson at St. John's. A Church built there .	95
The Rev. Mr. Jones at Bonavista	96
The Rev. Mr. Kilpatrick at Trinity Bay	97
Succeeded by Mr. Jones. The Rev. Messrs. Peaseley and Langman at St. John's. Difficulties encountered by them .	98
Roman Catholics in Newfoundland. Protestant Dissenters .	100
Present efforts of the Bishop of Newfoundland in Labrador .	101

CHAPTER XXIV.

THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND IN VIRGINIA, FROM THE BEGINNING OF THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY TO THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE.

A.D. 1700—1776.

The English possessions in North America	103
Rupert's Land. Brief notice of its later history	104
Provinces to the South of Rupert's Land	107
Virginia. William and Mary College. Its first public 'Commencement'	108
Indians present thereat. Provision made for their instruction .	109
Governor Nicholson recalled in 1705	110

Spotswood
His passage
School
Scholarship
College
Spotsylvania
German
Churches
Their mat
And their payment
Bristol Par
Its Church
Punishment
Virginia
Power of V
Evil consec
Jones's tes
Irregulariti
William
And of the
of removi
His earnest
of the sta
Virginia
Letter of Cl
The Virgini
education
Servants and Whitefield's
Samuel Mor
Samuel Dav
The labours
Serious disp
the subjec
Smit institut
for the del
Defeat of th
Consequence
Political influ