

- Ragueneau, Paul, the Indian doctor, 29; on the Tionnontates, 33; on the characteristics of the Eries, 35; on Indian charity and hospitality, 40; on Indian punishment for murder, 55; on worship among the Ottawas, 69; sketch of Garnier, 190, 195; on the miracles of Brébeuf, 198, 199; on Brébeuf's farewell letter to Le Jeune, 213; narrow escape of, 215, 216; first to mention Niagara Falls, 235; account of Marie de St. Bernard, 266; on the arrival of the nuns in Quebec, 275; on Bressani among the Hurons, 352; on the exemplary conduct of Le Berger, 402; on the treachery of the Iroquois, 439; on the retaliation of the Hurons, 440; on the Huron embassy to the Andastes, 441, 442; on honor among Indians, 447, 448; on the Huron missions, 449, 450; on the resistance of the Hurons against baptism, 450; slanders, 454; on murder and atonement among the Hurons, 455-461; on the defences of Sainte Marie, 463; on the prosperity of the mission of Sainte Marie, 467; on the hospitality of Sainte Marie, 469; Father Superior at, 471; on Father Daniel, 473; on the death of Father Daniel, 479; St. Louis burned by the Iroquois, 484; fears for Sainte Marie, 487; on the relics of Brébeuf and Lalemant found at St. Ignace, 489; on the murder of Brébeuf, 492; on the physical weakness of Lalemant, 493; on Brébeuf's desire to die for Christ, 494; on the visions of Brébeuf, 494; Sainte Marie must be abandoned, 497, 499; on the refugees at Isle St. Joseph, 502, 505; on the misery of the Hurons, 504; on the devotion of Garnier to his mission, 511; on the character of Garnier, 511; on Isle St. Joseph invested with the Iroquois, 515; on the fugitives from Isle St. Joseph slaughtered by the Iroquois, 516; on the fury of the Iroquois, 517; on the Huron mission abandoned, 519; on the disappearance of the Algonquins, 520; meeting with Bressani, 521; on the Flemish Bastard, 524; on the death of Father Buteux, 526; 530; on Étienne Annaotaha's revenge on the Iroquois, 533; the Iroquois turn their fury on the Neutrals, 541.
- Rapin, Father, 293.
- Raymbault, Father Charles, 307.
- Récollet Friars, the, 101, 251.
- Red Pipe-Stone Quarry, 167.
- "Relations," the Jesuit, 252; spread broadcast throughout France, 284.
- Rennes, Jesuit college of, 332, 334.
- Rensselaerswyck (Albany), 311, 328.
- Repentigny, Le Gardeur de, 242, 254; 434.
- Repentigny, Mademoiselle de, 433, 434.
- Rhagenratka, the, 33.
- Richelieu, Cardinal de, sends relief to Montagny, 337.
- Richelieu, Fort, in danger from the Iroquois, 335; receives reinforcement from the Cardinal de Richelieu, 337; attacked by the Iroquois, 339; journey of De Nouë to, 354; Father Jogues