

CONTENTS.

	Page
The military schools of Europe. Prepared in the Military Information Division for the Board of Visitors, United States Military Academy, and printed in their Report for the year 1895. Revised and corrected.	7-75
Re-enlistments and guarantees of employment for noncommissioned officers and ex-soldiers in European armies. Prepared in the Military Information Division	77-90
Field range finders in European armies (Austria-Hungary, Belgium, England, France, Germany, Italy, and Russia). Prepared in the Military Information Division	91-114
Regulations for the treatment, training, and employment of war dogs by the rifle battalions of the German army. Berlin, 1893. Translated in the Military Information Division	115-126
Laying ahead, by First Lieut. H. C. Davis, Third Artillery. Lyceum essay recommended for publication	127-132
Reprints:
Smokeless powder: Its influence on tactics. Translated from the Spanish and printed in the English United Service Magazine	133-140
Papers on the functions of the army and navy in the maintenance of the British Empire and on the invasion of England. From the English United Service Magazine	141-147
The defense of Canada and the Indian question in Canada. Extracts from How Canada is Governed, by J. G. Bourinot, 1895	149-151
List of figures and plates:
Field range finders:
Austria-Hungary (2 figures)	91, 92
Belgium (1 plate of 8 figures)	93
England (21 figures and 13 separate plates)	96-101
France (4 figures, one of them making a separate plate)	103-105
Italy (13 figures)	108-112
Russia (2 figures)	113
Laying ahead (4 plates)	127-132

ERRATA.

In Table of Contents, line 21, for 13 read 8.

In Table of Contents, line 22, omit one of them making a separate plate.