by the capitulation, the inhabitants without the Banlieue were to be * Neutrals, they continued their hoftilities; hoftilities continuing, the French miffionary prieft, and five of the principal inhabitants upon the river of Annapolis, were feized and kept as hoftages, for the inhabitants future good behaviour; even notwithftanding of this precaution, capt. Pigeon with 60 men being fent up the river for timber to repair the fort, they were waylaid by the French and their Indians, this party were all killed or made captives.—Many other hoftilities were committed.

After the peace of Utrecht, a continued tranquillity ill the war between New-England and their eaftern indians; the French miffionaries perfuaded the Indians, that the English had encroached upon their lands. Anno 1721, in June, capt. Blin a Nova Scotia trader, Mr. Newton collector of Nova Scotia, and others, were caplivated by the Indians at Pafamaquady, but were foon releafed, because gov. Doucet of Annapolis had made a reprifal of 22 Indians. Along Cape-Sable shore the Indians began to infult our fifthing veffels : in July thefe Indians take feveral fifting veffels on the Cape-Sable coaft, kill and captivate many of their men; governor Philips at Canfo fits out two armed floops, they kill and raptivate many Indians, and put an end to the Indian feaoving, anno 1724. Anno 1723, July 15, the Indians at Canfo upon Durrel's island kill capt. Watkins, two more men, one woman and one child. Anno 1724, in July, a party of Indians attack Annapolis of Nova Scotia, they burn two houses, and kill one ferjeant, and one private

* At prefent it feems an impropriety in the officers of the troops adgarison of Annapolis, and in the neighbouring governments of few England, to call the French inhabitants of Nova Scotia, NEU-RALS, because, 1. These French inhabitants with their Indians connued our enemies, and in fact did kill and captivate many British tople, in breach of this neutrality. 2. By the treaty of Utrecht, the hole province of Nova Scotia or L'Acendie, was absolutely ceded to teat Britain. 3. The principal men of the French inhabitants have ken the oaths of allegiance to the crown of Great Britain.
