

the unjust attacks made upon the French Canadians and have shown that they are in favor of the fullest measure of justice for their fellow-countrymen of French origin. As Sir Lomer Gouin in the great speech that he made in the Legislative Assembly on the Francœur motion declared with justice the attacks on the French Canadians emanate from a comparatively small minority and not from the mass of English-speaking Canadians, who are good and fair people.

The main obstacle to be overcome is the want of knowledge on the part of many English-speaking Canadians as regards the real status of the French Canadians. What therefore is most essential is that the actual position of the French Canadians should be placed clearly, fairly and comprehensively before English-speaking Canadians throughout the Dominion and it is to that work that I am now devoting my humble energies in the interest of racial concord and national unity,

JOHN BOYD.
