A DESPATCH from Halifax dated 31st ult. says: "A preliminary meeting of shareholders of the Sugar Refinery was held this morning. The attendance was large. A report from the directors was read, which stated, taking everything into consideration, there would be a loss of about $18,000 in the transactions of the Refinery to date. A committee was appointed, consisting of Allison Smith, John F. Stairs, Thos. Fyche, Henry Peters, J. J. Bremner, Geo. Thompson and J. R. Lithgow, to examine into the state of affairs, with power to examine witnesses, books, &c., and to suggest what is best to be done for the future carrying on of the work. The report also stated that the cost of the building and machinery had exceeded the estimates by about $70,000. Considerable discussion took place regarding the over-expenditure."

In these days of absconders and designing traders creditors are rapidly becoming alive to the necessity of increased vigilance where credit has been too inconsiderately granted. Referring to Messrs. Taylor & Simmonds, storekeepers at Markham and Brougham, Ont.—the young men alluded to in our last issue as having been arrested in Toronto on a charge of sacrificing their goods with intent to defraud—we are informed that besides about $150 in cash there were found on the person of one of the prisoners three gold watches, two diamond rings, and a gold locket. A friend of one of the partners, it is stated, was also induced by the strong arm of the law to disgorge $275 which had been deposited with him for safety; and evidence was not wanting of efforts having been made to dispose of other valuable property. This was the Toronto creditor, who discovered their reckless method of disposing of goods, rewarded for his energy and trouble, and became the means of saving a considerable portion of assets to the estate. The business was founded in Markham by Mr. J. C. Taylor, who sold out to his brother, P. M. Taylor, and R. Simmonds in May last, giving his brother $1,000 in stock. Simmonds had been a school-teacher, and had but little means, but is said to have been supplied with $1,000 as his share of the capital by an aunt living in Toronto, where nearly all the creditors reside. Two or three Montreal houses have been "let in" for small sums, not aggregating over $2,000.
