

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

SHOOTING.—Cow elk and hen pheasant protected at all times. . . .
Deer, elk, reindeer, caribou, mountain goat, mountain sheep, and hare, from 1st January to 14th September. . . . Grouse, partridge, prairie fowl, California and Virginia quail, from 1st February to 1st September.
. . . . Cock pheasant, from 1st February to 13th September. . . .
Wild duck, from 1st March to 31st August. . . . Quail and cock pheasant are protected entirely upon the mainland of British Columbia until 1st September, 1894. . . . Gulls are protected at all times.

Deer cannot be hunted with dogs west of the Cascade range.

FISHING.—Trout, from 15th October to 15th March.

STATE OF MAINE.

SHOOTING.—Moose, deer, or caribou, 1st January to 1st October.
. . . . Deer on Mt. Desert Island, 1st January to 1st November.
And no person shall have in his possession, between 1st October and 1st January, more than one moose, two caribou, and three deer. . . .
Mink, beaver, sable, otter, fisher, or muskrat, 1st May to 15th October.
Wood duck, black duck, dusky duck, sea duck, 1st April to 1st September, except on sea coast. . . . Ruffed grouse, partridge, and woodcock, 1st December to 1st September, and cannot be transported out of the state at any season. . . . Pinnated grouse, commonly called prairie chicken, 1st January to 1st September. . . . Quail, 1st December to 1st October. . . . Plover, 1st May to 1st August.
Insectivorous birds are protected at all seasons. Sunday is a close time for all game and birds.

FISHING.—Land-locked salmon, trout, and togue, 1st October to 1st
May, excepting on St. Croix and tributaries, and waters in Kennebec County, 15th September to 1st May; also on certain streams around Rangeley Lakes, from 1st July to 1st May. . . . Citizens of the state, however, may fish for and convey to their homes, during February, March, and April, excepting on the Rangeley Lakes, black bass and white perch, from 1st April to 1st July. . . . None of the fish named to be taken at any time except in ordinary mode of angling with single-baited hook or artificial flies. . . . Salmon, from 15th July to 1st April, but may be taken with single-baited hook or artificial flies from 1st April to 15th September. . . . Land-locked salmon and trout not to be transported except in possession of the owner, and not more than fifty pounds of both together by one person.

STATE OF VERMONT.

SHOOTING.—Deer protected entirely until 1st November, 1900.
. . . . Mink, beaver, fisher, or otter, 1st April to 1st November. . . .
Woodcock, 1st February to 15th August. . . . Quail, wood-duck, and grouse, wild goose and wild duck, from 1st February to 1st September, but at no time may they be sent out of the state for traffic or gain.
. . . . Wild geese or ducks, 1st May to 1st September. . . . Insectivorous birds protected at all seasons.

FISHING.—Trout, land-locked salmon, trout or "longe" [the latter is the local name for salmon or lake trout], 1st September to 1st May.
. . . . Black bass, 1st February to 1st June. . . . Bass under ten inches must be returned to the water. Wall-eyed pike [pike perch], pike, and pickerel, 1st February to 1st June.