

out look-
ness and into the s he has
ons con-
are fast
ith con-
done in
eir own
The mo-
hole match these der who
not diffi-
d this is ion, pre-fort; but engeance
en by its tions are power of oping to question
ay.

CONTENTS.

CHAPTER I.

Settlement of country—expedition of Captain Argall—first vessels of New England—first engagement on the water—first-decked vessel—guards-coast—frigate-fight—Sir William Philippe's expedition—first two-decked ship, built in America.....	Page 13
---	---------

CHAPTER II.

Buccaneers—Captain Kidd—taking of Port Royal—expedition against the Canadas—slave-trade—whale-fisheries—capture of Louisbourg	20
---	----

CHAPTER III.

Shipping of different ports, 1750—old French war—destroying the tea—burning of the Gaspe—battle of Lexington, &c.—commencement of revolution.....	29
---	----

CHAPTER IV.

Privateers—first naval action of the revolution—Lee, Captain Manly—laws of Congress—first American vessels of war—officers of navy first appointed—expedition of Commodore Hopkins—battle with the Glasgow—Edward taken by the Lexington.....	30
---	----

CHAPTER V.

Paul Jones—his first cruise as a commander—Doria, Captain Biddle—Defense, Captain Harding, takes British transports—cruises of the Providence and Alfred—cruise of Roprial, in Europe—Lexington, do—Captain Wilcox's cruises—Lexington taken—loss of Roprial—Captain Gustavus Conyngham's cruises.....	49
--	----