

LOVELL, ADAM, WESSON & CO.'S

RECENT PUBLICATIONS AND RE-ISSUES.

SIX HUNDRED DOLLARS A YEAR. A Wife's Effort at Living under High Prices. 1 vol. 16 mo., 200 pages. Cloth, Gilt Edges, 75 cents.

"This is the story of a wife, showing how, by economy and taste, the family lived comfortably on six hundred dollars a year. It is an entertaining volume, and full of good sense."—Boston Recorder.

"This is a book that will save not only many dollars a year, but in some cases many hundreds, by the thrifty hints it throws out."—Philadelphia Ledger.

"It combines the merits of a novel with those of a cook-book."—Boston Transcript.

A LOVER'S DIARY. By Alice Cary. With Illustrations by Henrynessy and others. 1 vol. 16mo., 250 pages. Full Gilt, Cloth, $1.50.

"For the pure loveliness of love, for the sweetly potent expression of its real character, for the fortifying of the heart against all sensuousness and evil heats and vicious warping of the nature, profaning the sacred name of love, we find Miss Cary's poem incomparable. We are glad to know that it will have many thousand readers."—Brooklyn Union.

"Carleton," (C. C. Coffin's) Writings.

OUR NEW WAY ROUND THE WORLD: Where to Go, and What to See. 8vo. 550 pages. With several Maps, and over 100 Engravings. $2.50.

"A more delightful book of travels has not in a long time fallen into our hands. There is not a dry line in it. He saw only what was worth seeing. What he says is worth saying, and he says it naturally and freshly; one is only sorry to get to the end."—New York Christian Advocate.

MY DAYS AND NIGHTS ON THE BATTLE-FIELD: A Book for Boys. 1 vol. 16mo., 320 pages. Illustrated. $1.25.

FOLLOWING THE FLAG, from August, 1861, to November, 1862, with the Army of the Potomac. 1 vol. 16mo., 350 pages. Illustrated. $1.25.

"'Carleton' is by all odds the best writer on the war, for boys. His 'Days and Nights on the Battle-Field' made him famous among young folks. To read his books is equal in interest to a bivouac or a battle, and is free from the hard couch and harder bread of the one, and the jeopardizing bullets of the other. To be entertained and informed, we would rather peruse 'Following the Flag' than study a dozen octavo volumes written by a world-renowned historian."—Indianapolis Journal.

WINNING HIS WAY. 1 vol. 16mo., 262 pages. Illustrated. $1.25.

"A story of a poor Western boy, who, with true American grit in his composition, worked his way into a position of honorable independence, and who was among the first to rally round the flag when the day of his country's peril came. There is a sound, manly tone about the book, a freedom from nanby-pambyism, worthy of all commendation."—Sunday School Times.

"One of the best of stories for boys."—Hartford Courant.

TALES OF THE ST. LAWRENCE. By G. C. Chapin. 1 vol. Crown 8vo. Cloth. $1.50.

THE BUTTERFLY HUNTERS. By Mrs. H. S. Connant. 1 vol. Square 16mo., 175 pages. Illustrated.

"A very handsome and instructive book for the young, with carefully drawn illustrations, which add greatly to its attractiveness."—New York Evangelist.
