

TABLE OF CONTENTS

xi
PAGE

Triumph of Mercier in Provincial Politics and of Chapleau in the Dominion Elections—Genesis of the Jesuits Estates—Appeal to the Pope—Passage of the Grant to the Jesuits—Agitation in Ontario and Birth of the Equal Rights party—Refusal of the Dominion Government to interfere with the Legislation—D' Alton McCarthy and the " Noble Thirteen"—A Very Living Question for a Time—Its Decay and the Fall of Mercier in Quebec 471

CHAPTER XXV

Trade and Tariffs and Unrestricted Reciprocity

The Progress of Canadian Trade—Popularity of Protection—Changes in Liberal Tariff Policy—Mackenzie, Blake and Laurier in this Connection—Natural Pessimism of the Opposition—Erastus Wiman Appears on the Scene in 1887—Sir Richard Cartwright, Goldwin Smith and the New Scheme of Commercial Union, or Unrestricted Reciprocity—Progress of the Movement in Parliament and the Country—American Versus British Relations at Issue—The Elections of 1891—Manifestoes of Sir John Macdonald and Wilfrid Laurier—The Hottest Contest in Canadian History—The New Proposals Defeated—Gradual Decay of the Idea and its Final Disappearance in the Elections of 1896 491

CHAPTER XXVI

Manitoba and the School Question

Progress of Manitoba After its Union with Canada—Material Interests the Chief Concern of its Scattered People—Education Finds an Important Place—Separate Schools and the Roman Catholic Population—Position of Archbishop Taché—Legislation and the Schools—Joseph Martin Advocates " National " Schools—Abolition in 1890 of the Existing System—Catholic Appeals to the Courts and to the Judicial Committee in London—Decisions of the Latter Body and Appeal to the Governor-General-in-Council—Excitement amongst French Canadians and Ontario Orangemen—Difficult Position of the Dominion Government—The Remedial Order—Attitude of Sir M. Bowell and Sir C. Tupper—Of Mr. Laurier and the Opposition—Position of the Hierarchy—Political Conflict and Confusion—The Elections of 1896 and the Policy of the New Government 518

CHAPTER XXVII

The South African War and Imperialism in Canada

Position of Canada in the Empire—Responsibilities not Accepted vs Recognized—The Outbreak of the War—Popular Opinion in the Colonies—Influence