Woman's World...

Devoted Specially to the Interests of our Women Readers.

Conducted by Katherine Leslie.

I have just been talking with a University graduate who came from a distance to apply for a position as governess to two children of a very well known society woman in town. This woman is very wealthy, and is professedly a Christian, consequently I judged that any governess she might engage for her children would be at least decently paid, especially as she is most particular that her governesses are women of refinement and education. I might have known better. The duties, as enumerated by the grande dame in question, were to teach the girl of ten English, French, music, etc, to superintend the boy's lessons, (he is 12), and tutor him for next day's recitations at school, to superintend their baths and look after their wardrobes, to form their manners and morals, and never under any circumstances whatever to leave them unattended. The governess must always be bright and cheerful and amiable, must always take her meals with the children and accompany them whenever they go out; in short she must devote her whole time and attention to them as mamma's social duties do not admit of her attending to or being with her children. The children were to be handed over entirely to the care of the governess, who was evidently to become their teacher, mother, companion and constant chaperon combined, and the salary attached to the very responsible position was less than mamma could get a first class housemaid for, or any other domestic who had had no expensive education, not to mention a four years' course at a university.

* * *

It really seems incredible, but this rich woman was not ashamed to offer $12 per month to the woman who was to be her deputy, and to bring up her children for her. Also, when the governess-in-prospect asked what time she was to have for herself, for necessary rest or recreation, an occasional afternoon or evening off—my Lady Dives elevated her eyebrows, and said that she did not permit her governesses any time to themselves, but that she might sometimes allow her to have sufficient time on Sunday morning to go to church unaccompanied by the children. But the children with her were always her first consideration!

* * *

Now this is only one more of the countless cases which without exaggeration can be called oppression of the poor. Women of the class of the society woman referred to, who spend thousands yearly on their dress and personal adornment, without a qualm of conscience, pinch those who teach their children or relieve them of their maternal responsibilities, because they know there are so many educated women solely dependent upon their own resources for a living, who, having no one to stand between them and the bitter world, are anxious to devote heart and brain to any work that will give them a living and something that at least resembles a home.

* * *

An ordinary educated woman who goes out as a nurse to children, merely to look after their physical well-being, can command as good a salary as, if not better than, this rich woman is unscrupulous enough to offer to a woman who brings refinement that no money can buy, musical and linguai proficiency, and a trained intelligence to her work. The physical care of children involves a great responsibility, but the mental and moral involves a greater, and should be paid in proportion. But what can be expected of women who thus estimate their maternal responsibilities and duties at $144 per annum? And what surpassing selfishness to calmly appropriate the whole time of the governess—a thing she would not even dare to hint to a domestic she was engaging—never to allow her a single afternoon or evening off, or to consider for a moment that the daily monotony and grind might be relieved, and better work done, through a little contact with the outside world, an occasional afternoon spent with friends, or a change of scene and occupation free from the eternal presence of the children. But cases of this kind are very common; so common that the wonder is that Christian ministers ever lack for texts that would be of practical use to the world.

* * *

We were discussing that horrible story "Bimi" that Kipling tells in the "Mine Own People" collection of stories; you remember it tells of the fatal jealousy of a tame outang-outang, and from this we fell to talking of the jealousy of animals when their masters take unto themselves wives or other friends than themselves. "I can quite believe that 'Bimi' story, "said one of the party;" you know my sister married Dr. Blank who was the owner of a magnificent great Dane. This dog had been his constant friend and companion for years, and when he brought home his bride, the brute showed his jealousy by growling and showing his teeth whenever she spoke or looked at him. One morning after the dawn she woke quite suddenly, and with a great dread upon her. Looking round she beheld the great Dane in a springing attitude beside the bed, glaring with great fiery eyeballs at her and with the hair on the back of his neck erect. Her terrified scream aroused her husband who had difficulty in driving the brute away. As it was very evident that the poor creature meant to attack the one who had replaced him in his master's affection, it became necessary to destroy him. But it was a great grief to the doctor."

* * *

Mrs. Rorer, the well known authority in cooking and diet, says that men as a class make better selections of food at a lunch counter than do women. I have observed during the warm months that women who are in town shopping usually begin their luncheon with a plate of ice cream to chill the stomach, then a cup of coffee, or more frequently tea and rolls, to warm it back to comfort again, or a cinnamon bun and a plate of ice cream. They rarely ever select a dainty salad or a thin slice of cold meat, with bread and butter, or fruits or an aspic dish, all of which are cooling and appetizing. A slice of cold roast beef neatly garnished with a few blocks of aspic jelly and a plate of lettuce makes an exceedingly nice luncheon on a warm day. Where, however, time is short, ice cream, if very slowly eaten, will not prove injurious, if unmixed with other foods.

A correspondent writes me as follows: "The idea has been presented to the ladies visiting the Historical Exhibition that what Canada really needs now is a national bonnet. The beautiful creations of our clever milliners are seen on all sides, and are most suitable to the bright days of June, but when the seasons change and the frost comes, if they could invent out of their clever heads a Canadian bonnet so pretty and so becoming and so comfortable that every woman would want to have one, they would confer a lasting favor upon us and would be strongly backed up, I am sure, by the medical fraternity. Canada is daily growing in importance. Why should it not have a native bonnet?" Dear Lady, is this a joke? If not, what an idea, and how one's imagination revels in it. Why the "chaperone's" hood at the exhibition would be beautiful in comparison. By the way did this brilliant idea originate in the "chaperone's" hood, or in any of the fearsome samples of millinery shown there? Medical approval of our millinery indeed! Would that compensate for hideousness? What next I wonder!

DOMINION DAY ON THE WATER.

Particulars of the Many Trips That the Steamers Will Take To-Day—Dock News.

Everything is now in readiness for the Dominion Day pleasure-seekers and the boats no doubt will have a profitable, as well as a busy day. Steamers will be running to all the many pleasure resorts and a splendid service on all lines has been arranged.

The steamer John Hanlan, which has been chartered by the city as a free ferry between Toronto and the Island, made a trial trip yesterday afternoon to the various ports of call. On board were the Mayor, Controller Woods, Ald. Russell, and City Commissioner Coatsworth. The party visited Ward's Island, Centre Island and Hanlan's Point. Hereafter the John Hanlan will run daily from near the foot of Bay-street. A structure to be used as a waiting room is under construction on the wharf and will be similar to the buildings now in use by the Ferry Company. The passengers will enter by the gate to the east and on the arrival of the boat the gate to the west will be opened, giving free access to the steamer. Passengers arriving will be allowed to get off first. Capt. J. J. Quinn will be in charge of the John Hanlan, with Thomas Walton as engineer, and Mr. Robert Newman as first mate. The latter official will also be the city's representative on board the boat.

The Garden City will be busy to-day in moving troops from the camp. She will leave Newcastle early this morning for Niagara and convey the 16th Battalion to Picton, 49th Battalion to Belleville, 40th Battalion to Cobourg and 46th Battalion to Port Hope. Consequently the Garden City will not be running out of Toronto to-day.

The A. J. Tymon will make her regular weekly trip to Lewiston to-night, leaving here at 11 o'clock. People who take in this trip will have a splendid opportunity of visiting Niagara camp and Buffalo.

Capt. Towers of the steamer Lincoln is receiving the hearty congratulations of his friends these days for the manner in which he handled his boat during the big storm on the lake.

The Toronto Ferry Company will have all their boats running between the city and Hanlan's Point and Centre Island to-day. There will be numerous attractions at both places.

The Argyle will leave Geddes' wharf at 11 a.m. to-day for Rochester. Tickets will be good to return up till the 5th inst. The Lincoln leaves at 8 a.m., and Lakeside at 2 p.m. for St. Kitts. to-day. Returning, they will leave St. Catharines at 7 and 7.30 p.m.

This afternoon Hon. N. Clarke Wallace, M.P., will deliver an address on "Our Fair Dominion" at Grimsby Park. The steamer A. J. Tymon will leave for that park at 10 a.m. and will no doubt be largely patronized. Returning, she will leave Grimsby Park at 6 p.m.

The pretty steam launches Electra and Cruiser will leave for a week's cruise around the lake to-day.

In mid-lake yesterday afternoon the Lakeside made an interchange of passengers with the Lincoln. This was done in order that the former vessel could keep her engagement to carry troops to Niagara camp last night from Toronto.

Four trips will be made to Lorne Park and Oakville to-day by the steamer White Star. The management have made splendid arrangements for the handling of the crowds, which they expect to experience, and everything has been done for the comfort and accommodation of all passengers.

The Garden City brought a number of the residents of Oshawa, Bowmanville and Whitby to the city yesterday. Returning, she left at 5 p.m. with a big cargo and lots of passengers.

The steamer Cuba is due to come in this morning from Montreal. After unloading her freight at Geddes' wharf she will proceed on her journey to Cleveland.

The Sunday School of the Church of the Messiah held their annual excursion to Lorne Park yesterday on the steamer White Star. About 400 members took in the trip. The same steamer carried a large number of passengers, having on one trip about 500 on board.

The Ocean, after discharging a cargo at Geddes' wharf, cleared yesterday morning for Hamilton. She will return this afternoon and at 2.30 clear for the east.

During Thursday and yesterday the A. J. Tymon brought over from Jordan 35½ tons of fruit. She also carried a big crowd of excursionists to Grimsby Park yesterday.

This afternoon at 2.30 the new steamer Toronto will leave Milloy's wharf for Rochester, Thousand Islands and Charlotte. A large number will take in this trip.

On her way to Cleveland the Empire State called at Milloy's wharf yesterday morning from Oswego.

The arrivals at Toronto yesterday were: Chippewa, Corona and Chicora from Niagara and Lewiston, Lakeside and Lincoln from St. Catharines, Macassa and Modjeska from Hamilton, White Star from Oakville, A. J. Tymon from Grimsby Park, Garden City from Oshawa, Empire State from Oswego, and Spartan from Montreal.

Owing to the delay in moving the troops from Niagara camp, the steamer Cambria will not run to Wilson Park this morning at 11 o'clock, as previously announced.

The steamer Spartan came up from Montreal yesterday morning and at 2.30 p.m. cleared for the east again. On board were President A. E. Kemp of the Board of Trade, and Miss Kemp and several bridal couples.

HARDY MADE CONDITIONS.

He Will Not Take Any Chances for Damage Claims by the Michigan Lumber Men.

A prominent lumberman in the Ottawa Valley, who has intimate relations with the Liberal party, says that it is true that Mr. Hardy has agreed to go to court to try the legality of his manufacturing clause, which compels the Michigan lumbermen to cut their logs in Ontario, but he has done so only on a very significant condition, viz.: That he will only issue a fiat for the trial of the case on the condition that the Michigan lumbermen waive all claims for damages that may accrue from a verdict being rendered against the Government.

PINGREE'S MEN ON STRIKE.

They Are Dissatisfied at the Employment of Boys—A Lockout.

Detroit, June 30.—Dissatisfied at the employment of boys, more than 600 employes of the shoe factory of Pingree & Smith are out. J. B. Howarth, one of the members of the firm, says: "We have a good stock on hand and can stand idle for a month or six weeks. If by that time the employes have not come to terms we will in all probability put in non-union men. We have been more lenient with our employes than we should have been. We have stood more than we should if Hazen S. Pingree had not been Governor and in politics."

The Executive Board of the Union called upon Frank C. Pingree, who has charge of the factory, and were informed that the firm would not drop the boys. They were told further that if they went out the firm would issue an order for all the other employes to quit as soon as they cleaned up the work on their benches. This amounted to a lockout, and the plan was put into execution.

The Parkman Illustrations.

A number of our citizens have taken advantage of the opportunity offered them during the past week of seeing the free exhibit of Parkman pictures, now on view at the offices of George N. Morang & Co., 90 Wellington-street west. The illustrations include fifteen original paintings and drawings by eminent artists, besides the rare portraits, engravings and maps, which are reproduced in the new and handsome "Frontenac" edition of Parkman's Historical Works, recently issued. The exhibit will remain on view for a week or two longer, and those who are interested in the history of our country should not miss the chance of seeing it.

THE LEASE TO GRAND TRUNK

A New Proposition Made by the Railway Company is Now Being Considered.

HON. DAVID MILLS A BIT TANGLED.

Hon. R. W. Scott, However, Came to the Rescue—Kirchhoffer Hits Blair.

Ottawa, June 30.—The fate of the Intercolonial extension bill in the Senate is still a matter of doubt. A proposition has been made, however, by the Grand Trunk Railway, which will enable the Government to cancel the traffic arrangements on one year's notice. The Senate and the C. P. R. are now considering this proposition. During the discussion Sir Mackenzie Bowell laid a neat trap for Hon. David Mills. The latter was eulogizing Mr. Blair's improved bargain and was invited to explain in what manner the present bargain differed from the old one. Mr. Mills did not know. Mr. Laurier was getting along without him when the first bargain was closed. Hon. R. W. Scott was ready to supply the deficiency of knowledge admitted by his colleague. He evidently thought Sir Mackenzie was playing for an admission that this bargain was half a million dollars better than the one the Tory Senate killed.

Not to be drawn into any such snare, Mr. Scott said both bargains were practically the same. "Then," said Sir Mackenzie, "we were asked to sanction practically the same agreement we rejected two sessions ago."

"Oh, no;" there is a good deal of difference," Mr. Scott hurried to explain. "The rental of $6,000 a year to Chaudiere has been taken off."

Sir Mackenzie had little good to say of the bargain. He gave some indications of murderous intentions by declaring that the Government refusing to comply with Sir Oliver Mowat's definite promise to keep strict account of the results of the experiment of leasing the Drummond road, the Senate was in a position to throw out these bills without even considering their merits.

Sir Mackenzie defended the subsidizing of a rival of the Intercolonial. Freight was thereby taken cheaply to St. John. Should the present scheme carry it meant good-bye to a Canadian winter port for the next 99 years.

The C. P. R., he greatly feared, would be driven by necessity to look for a winter port in the United States. "Those voting for this agreement," said Sir Mackenzie, "will force the C. P. R. to carry the freight hitherto going to St. John to Portland or Boston, and must take the responsibility. The traffic agreement is a damnable one, and will be ruinous to the interests of the country."

Senator Kirchhoffer repudiated the theory that opposition to the bargain was inspired by regard for the interests of the C. P. R. He observed that if Mr. A. G. Blair had not been criminally guilty he had been criminally innocent when he thus gave away Canada's birthright.

Senator Snowball supported the bill on the ground that the extension would cheapen rates for the Maritime Provinces.

WEST HURON ELECTION PETITION.

The Proceedings Are Again Adjourned Owing to the Absence of a Material Witness.

In consequence of the continued absence of John T. Linklater, the proceedings in the West Huron election case were again adjourned yesterday.

Barrister W. D McPherson also stated that after three weeks of effort he had served Alexander Smith, the Liberal organizer. The learned counsel wished the service of the subpoena to hold good for an adjourned date.

The court—Justices Osler and [illegible]—made no order, and it was agreed to adjourn for a week.

Worthy Principal Honored.

A spirit of deep sadness leavened the usually joyful closing exercises of the Borden-street Public school yesterday, when the teachers, pupils and friends assembled to bid farewell to their esteemed principal and friend, Mr. Adam Morrison, who is severing his connection with the school. For many years Mr. Morrison's cheerful presence, gentle care and kindly influence have brightened the lives of the many children who have received his wise instruction. And although he will be no longer in his old place he will leave in the hearts of all those who have thus known him an example of true manliness and sympathy, and his life will ever remain as a pleasant memory, which will be productive of gentle thoughts, kindly words and noble deeds. After many complimentary remarks, made by the inspectors, trustees and visiting friends, an address was read, and Mr. Morrison was asked to accept, as an indication of the love and regard of the teachers and pupils of the school, a beautiful leather traveling bag, and a handsome Morris chair, with the expressed wish that in scenes both of activity and rest he might be often and happily reminded of the friends of school days.

Bait Act Will Be Enforced.

St. John's, Nfld., June 30.—The Colonial Government is preparing a circular intimating to American fishermen that the Bait Act in Behring's Sea stringently enforced against the French, and warning the Americans that if they assist the French by bringing them bait to St. Pierre, the laws will be similarly enforced against them also.

Gorman Discharged.

County Constable Burns returned from Owen Sound yesterday, where he testified in the case of John Gorman, charged with stealing a bicycle from Alex. McDonald of Chatsworth.

Gorman was discharged.

POISONED BY TEA AND COFFEE

Such has been reported in several medical journals, and in many cases fatal. Especially in the young folks who had not yet become accustomed to the poisonous effects of caffeine and tannin contained in teas and coffees. Avoid all drinks that are injurious to the system. Begin using "Rokco Health Drink," which is absolutely pure, wholesome and nourishing, and can be used in any quantity without injury. Cures indigestion and other ailments caused by tea and coffee. "Rokco" is highly recommended by physicians, and all classes of men. Rokco is the original preparation on the market. Do not take bran mash substitutes, which are claimed to be just as good. A 10c. package of "Rokco" will make 75 cups, and is used at your meals in place of tea or coffee. Rokco also makes a delicious summer iced drink. Rokco looks like ground coffee. But it ain't coffee. Goes twice as far as tea and coffee and only costs half the price, and many ladies say the flavor of Rokco is equal to 40c. coffee. But remember you get 2 lbs. of Rokco for 25c.

Ask your grocer for a 10c. package. For sale everywhere.

Wealth and Wisdom

Travel together. We can't all of us be wealthy, but we would like to suggest by a few hints how we can all be more wealthy. Wealth consists in what is saved—not what is earned. "Saving" means finding the store where you can find the same quality for less money than anywhere else. We started our store on the basis of small profits and quick returns, our chief object being to cater to economical women. Now, we guard our hard-earned reputation as a precious jewel, and if you have not too much money we would like you to study our prices—that is all we ask. If variety is the spice of life the Bazaar is spicy enough to please anyone—from finest French china to cheap delf for summer use, from pins to sterling silver dressing sets, from candles to soap. Space limits saying more, but come and see.
