Grandpa's" first appearance in Toronto as an umpire, and the fans will be out in force to see him work. The Maple Least and Royals provided the most interesting baseball of the local season on their last appearance here, and this coming series promises to be equally as good. The To-ronto team expects to make a bid for first honors during the month of July, when they play a long series on the home grounds. Buffalo will follow Montreal; then look out for trouble! Batterles-Weimer and Schlei; Malarky, Witz, McGinnity and Bresnahan. Um-pire-Klem. Baseball Notes. Either Moffitt or McGinley will pitch to-day's game. Baitimore have secured Pitcher Pfeif-for the Boston Nationals. Pfeiffer was a good twirler two years ago, when he shut Cincinnati out without a hit or a run. Providence have secured Outfielder Mc-
