YOUTHFUL DESPERADO ROBBED THE OPERATOR

Percy Bowerman a Walking Arsenal When Arrested-Population 66,967.

HAMILTON, Oct. 1 .- (Special) .- The lice have an amusing case on their hands. Last night A. B. Patterson, a G.T.R. telegraph operator at the Junction cut, was surrounded by three masked men who pointed revolvers at him and demanded in melodramatic style that he give up his money or his life. Patterson gave up his money, $20. but was a little surprised when the bandits failed to relieve him of his watch. They appeared to be very green at the business and very nervous. He had a revolver, a bowie knife, a dagger, a club and several other weapons. But the thing amongst his possessions which gave the police the greatest surprise was a diary in which the youth related all his deeds of prowess during the last few days. It sets forth in a graphic style how he and two companions robbed at the Junction cut last night, and how he had stoler a couple of bicycles and thrown them into a pond. The wheels were found by the police to-day. The diary mills be used as evidence against the prisoner when he comes to trial.

Inquest Into the Death of Mrs. Conners Explains Cause of Demise.

It was conclusively shown at Coroner Robinson's inquest at Markham yesterday afternoon that the septic poisoning which caused the death of Mrs. Conners of Box Grove, was not due to any illegal cause. The autopsy performed by Chief Coroner Johnson showed this and the evidence went to show that some time before her death Mrs. Conners had gone in to see a neighbor. She did not find the woman about and walking into her bedroom found her in bed. Thinking that she was asleep Mrs. Conners put out her hand to awaken her. She was dead. The shock brought about natural de-
