BALTIMORE, Md., April 24.—The cpening of the spring meeting of the spring meeting of the Maryland Jockey Club at Pimlico this afternoon marks the beginning of the racing season in the east this year.

The recent rains made the track heavy, but even with a fast track there could have been little, if any, improvement in the class of herses gathered, the change in the racing situation in the cast having brought to Pimlico the east having brought to Pimlico the cast having brought to Pimlico the course for years. Auction Pools and Mutuels. LEXINGTON. April 24.—Fine weather and a good attendance marked the opening day of the Kentucky Racing Association. The track was in good shape and a good card was up. The auction pools were fairly active and the play in the mutuel machines was good. All indications point to a most successful meeting. There are no salaried judges and Major F.A. Daingerfield and J. N. Camden, president of the association, are acting as presiding judges.
