The New "Halley Comet" Hat-Bow Is Very Effective

At the present day, probably nothing in the stellar world is being more eagerly watched than is "Halley's Comet," and to it we owe the inspiration of the "Halley Comet" Hat Bow. It envelops the entire crown of the hat in a regular cataract of ribbon, falling in great loops and bows from a knotted centre. It looks most effective in two contrasting shades. It requires but 8 yards of 5, 6 or 7-inch ribbon, and we tie it ready to put on free of charge. Prices from $1.60 to $4.00, according to quality.
