QUEBEC GREETED LEGATE

Marois, Sir Lomer Gouin, Judge Cannon and numerous other celebrated men.

Twenty Thousand There. The terrace was crowded to overflowing. The whole city seemed to have mustered for the welcome. Fully 20,000 people thronged the streets. The hotels were packed. Prices high and accommodation difficult to obtain, yet no one would have believed it in the morning. The town seemed half empty, and wore its immemorial aspect of slumberous mediocrity.

And then suddenly the calm lifted, and throngs seemed to spring from unguessed sources, and the streets filled with applauding crowds, and happy children and earnest votaries of the church; monks, nuns and priests without number.

The Annals of the Church. Archbishop Bégin in his speech dwelt eloquently on the glorious annals of the church in Canada. It was at Tadoussac, which his eminence had passed, he said, that the first mass in Canada was sung. He spoke of the loyalty of Quebec to the faith, and, after assuring his eminence that they considered themselves honored in Canada by being chosen as the first country in America for a Eucharistic Congress, they expressed their gratification at the visit of so distinguished a prince of the church as Cardinal Vannutelli.

Message From the Vatican. The cardinal, who, on rising, was greeted with tumultuous applause, declared his delight with the magnificent and cordial welcome he had received from the first moment of setting foot in Canada. First of all he assured them that he had a mission from the holy father, which he would at once fulfil, namely, to assure them of the holy father's love and benediction. (Loud applause.)

The annals of the church in Canada showed an origin of marvelous heroism. The faith had been planted in the blood of the martyr, and to look at the crowds in Quebec to-day was to feel that in devotion to the faith the sons of the church were not degenerate.

Cobalt Litigation.

A writ of summons was issued yesterday in high court by the Casey Cobalt Mining Co. against W. S. Mitchell of 60 State-street, Boston. Mitchell was formerly manager of the Casey Company and the action is for damages for the wrongful and fraudulent taking, removal and detention of the books of account of the company, which, it is stated in the writ, were taken and removed and detained by the defendant while acting as manager of the company, and which were wrongfully held by him, and for an account of moneys handled by him as manager of the company.

At the present time Mitchell is a fugitive from justice from Canada, there being a warrant out for his arrest for fraud in connection with the formation of the Algonquin Mining Co., of which his uncle, Senator Mitchell of Quebec, was a director.

PLUMBERS ELECT OFFICERS

G. H. Cooper of Toronto is Elected National President.

At the closing sessions of the master plumbers' convention yesterday, it was decided to leave the matter of seeking legislation for protection to the plumbing trade to the new executive.

Medical Health Officer Sheard did not believe that legislation was needed to restrict the "amateur plumber" because he explained the plumbing by-law served as full protection along that line. Dr. Sheard stated that in his opinion the "Dumb Bristle" does not allow every man to be his own plumber, but merely advocates the galvanized pipe in lieu of the heavier lead and cast iron pipes which are not so easily worked.

The following officers for the ensuing year were elected: President, G. H. Cooper, Toronto; vice-president, J. E. Walsh, Montreal; secretary, L. Legrow, Toronto; treasurer, E. D. Higginbotham, Fort William; provincial vice-presidents: Nova Scotia, F. Dexter, Truro; New Brunswick, B. Blake, St. John; Quebec, H. W. Munday, Montreal; Ontario, R. J. Shannon, Toronto; Manitoba, R. Thompson, Winnipeg; Saskatchewan, W. C. Helmick, Moose Jaw; Alberta, J. Young, Calgary; British Columbia, R. C. Hodgson, Vancouver. Chairmen of committees: Legislative, H. A. Knapp, St. John; sanitary, Geo. Ross, Brockville; apprentice, J. Griffin, Montreal; essay, J. E. Farrell, North Bay.

Considerable competition was aroused when an endeavor was made to decide on a meeting place for next year's convention, but it was finally decided to convene in Port Arthur next June.

THE WAY TO PLAN TOWNS TO HELP WORKING CLASS

Henry Vivian, M.P., of Birkenhead, England, Gives Instructive Address Before Delegates.

Town planning and town housing was the subject of a most interesting address delivered by Henry Vivian, M.P. for Birkenhead, England, before the Union of Canadian Municipalities at the city hall yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Vivian, who is on a three months' visit to Canada, arrived in Toronto yesterday.

Mayor Geary was so impressed by the visitor's knowledge of municipal problems that he invited him to give the city three or four days of his time in October, which Mr. Vivian will do. Proper regulation in regard to the laying out of a city to meet future requirements he believed to be one of the most important movements in England at the present time, and to illustrate the effect of the movement he contrasted the physical condition of the school children living in the congested slums of Liverpool and those residing in Port Sunlight, a city of model homes for the working class.

"Such a difference in conditions and surroundings," he said, "has produced almost a different creature."

On account of his interest in the movement he had come to Canada on invitation to give some useful information in planning the opening of new streets and the housing of the people so as to meet the demands of health and beauty.

Actual Experience. He himself had been on one of the committees which investigated the home life of some 1400 children in Edinburgh and in Liverpool. They divided the city into three grades, examining first the conditions of the well-to-do, the middle class and those living in one and two-roomed houses. It was the last-mentioned class which he compared with the sons and daughters of the workmen of Port Sunlight, many of whom at fourteen years of age were as much as five inches taller and thirty pounds heavier than the Liverpool children.

The speaker cited the report of the medical health officer of Finsbury, a suburb of London, which showed that the death rate in a one-roomed house was 40 per thousand, in a two-roomed, 20 per thousand; three-roomed, 15 and in four-roomed only eight or ten per thousand of population.

England's Necessity. "If England is to hold her place in the great national rivalry now developing," continued Mr. Vivian, "something has to be done in order to check the great demoralizing influence in the people's life shown by these figures."

Nearly every English municipality was now taking advantage of the legislation given them under the act and preparing plans for a more substantial development.

The speaker described the laying out of what he termed "garden cities," some fifteen or sixteen in number. These are designed for the accommo-

DOMINION MILLERS' ASS'N.

Request Government to Operate Terminal Elevators.

The annual meeting of the Dominion Millers' Association, held in the board of trade reading room yesterday afternoon. The session lasted all afternoon, and much business was transacted.

The election of officers resulted: D. B. Wood, Hamilton, president; S. R. Stewart, New Hamburg, first vice-president; A. Noble, Norval, second vice-president; C. B. Waite, Toronto, secretary-treasurer; executive committee: J. D. Flavell, Lindsay; Geo. E. Gault, Toronto; J. I. A. Hunt, London; A. C. McLeod, Stratford; H. L. Rice, St. Mary's; Hedy Shaw, Toronto.

A resolution was passed asking the government to take over and hold in the terminal elevators at Port William and Port Arthur, and it was further resolved that the association would cooperate with the growers' associations of the northwest and the exporters, to make proper representation to the government towards having the elevators taken over.

The reports of the secretary, the central wheat buyer, the freight committee and the executive committee were read, discussed and approved. A strong warning was sounded by various of the millers present of the danger of spoiling flour if wheat containing smut-tails was used. Some of the speakers contended that smutty wheat was not fit even for feeding chickens or hogs.

KINGSTON, Sept. 1.—Dr. Isaac Wood, who was stricken with apoplexy Monday afternoon, died at 12.30 this morning, at his residence on King-street. Dr. Wood graduated in medicine from Queen's TEN years, and took a post graduate course in England and Scotland.

Do Your Nerves Demand Liquor

The Gatlin Treatment in Three Days, Without Hypodermic Injections, Does Away With All Craving and Desire for Liquor and Brings Back Mental, Physical and Nerve Strength.

Alcohol is an insidious, treacherous poison which, through its peculiar effect upon the BRAIN, deceives the liquor drinker into believing that it does him good instead of harm. It accumulates in his system, his poison of alcohol, and always demands MORE as NERVE-RELIEF from the effects of that already taken. Once in the system, it becomes a MENTAL, PHYSICAL and NERVE-necessity.

The Gatlin treatment cures the liquor habit in THREE DAYS by eliminating the accumulated alcoholic poison. Thus doing away with the CAUSE of continued drinking. Craving, desire and nerve-demand for liquor are but EFFECTS of alcoholic poisoning — symptoms — and disappear immediately with the CAUSE.

There is no more inconvenience in coming to the Gatlin Institute and taking the Gatlin treatment than there is in stopping at any first-class hotel for three days. There is nothing "heroic" about the treatment—it is simple and harmless, containing no poisons of deleterious drugs. There are no hypodermic injections or other disagreeable features.

Each patient treated under a plain contract to cure—to cure satisfactorily—in THREE DAYS or the full fee paid shall be refunded when leaving the institute and treatment shall cost nothing. The Gatlin Institute has been established TEN years. Seven thousand men and women have been treated with failure in NO case. If a three-days' visit to the institute would be inconvenient, send for the Gatlin Home treatment.

Call or write for books of particulars, copies of contracts to cure and other information. Institute located at 425 Jarvis Street, cor. Maitland, Toronto, Ont. Local and long distance telephone, North 4534.
