The friends throughout the province of Rev. Gideon Swim, who has been supplying the Victoria street Baptist church during the winter, will be glad to learn that the improvement in his general health has led him to alter his plans, and after leaving the Victoria street church about the first of May he will continue in pastoral work. As yet, however, he has no definite plans. The work in the Victoria street church is flourishing, and Mr. Swim's services there have been much appreciated.

Ant. Hulling stated that his consisted the mirror were replaced and the defendant enter into an agreement to keep away from his store. After some argument A. W. Editor Times:

Sir—I think the citizens generally will concur in the view that Premier Pugsley should be persuaded to enter the larger arena of federal politics, as member for St. John. There has never been a time in the history of this port when the need of strong and influential representation at Ottawa was more keenly felt. Should Premier Pugsley be chosen, the just claims of St. John would be pressed, and recognized, for he is of the class of public men from whom the members of cab-ST. recognized, for he is of the class of public men from whom the members of cabinets are selected. It is therefore a matter for congratulation that a petition is being circulated and largely signed, asking Dr. Pugsley to permit himself to be put in nomination for the seat made vacant by the death of Doctor Stockton. Dr. Pugsley is today the ablest man in New Brunswick politics, and he should be one of the representatives of St. John at Ottors, and eventually a member of the of the representatives of St. John at Ottawa, and eventually a member of the

Genuinely Antique Oriental Rugs

VERITABLY AN ART COLLECTION

The demand for Oriental rugs in this country increases rapidly. A few years ago they were little known outside a limited number of private collections and in museums, but each year is making them more of a factor in the art furnishings of this western division of the world, indeed the wide field for artistic research embodied in each rug. weave, dyes, design, history, symbolisms and geographical interest-enhances their value many fold. That family pedigree and tradition is frequently connected with a product of the rude looms of the Orient gives further vent to the imagination of the appreciative. Getting down to cold commercial calculating these importations are a household economy. They wear everlastingly, their sheen and lustre never dim, their colors are unfadable in every sense a home requisite of rare beauty a charm at all times.
