SNAPPY TODAY

A real breath of winter struck the city today with the thermometer around twelve degrees above zero and a chilling, biting northwest wind blowing. It would be cold enough if one was prepared for something of the kind, but after the warm weather of nearly a week, the blast from the north has redoubled effect. Many unfortunates who proved poor weather prophets ventured out this morning in light fall overcoats and thin gloves and said many things, hardly complimentary.

TO RECOMMEND THE TENDERS

Epidemic Hospital and General Hospital Matters Before County Council Finance Committee.

A meeting of the finance committee of the County Council took place this morning in the office of the county secretary, J. King Kelley, Prince William street. Mr. M. J. Macaulay, chief superintendent of the hospital, waited on the committee and presented tenders received for an extension to the epidemic hospital—now under consideration; and also the matter of having all unexpended balances grouped to meet an expected over extended balance of some $10,000 on general current expenses. The decision recommended the acceptance of the tenders.

The finance committee decided to recommend to the council to accept the separate trade tenders aggregating approximately $20,000. The new structure will include additional room for the treatment of sixty patients as well as rooms for nurses. It was decided to call a special meeting of the council on December 1 to deal with overdrafts and other financial and hospital matters.

This afternoon committee meetings are being held dealing with pensions and unemployment.

Service was VESTRY CLERK FOR REV. H. A. CODY

St. John Clergyman Makes Reference in Rotary Club Address in Moncton.

(Transcript Tuesday.) The Rev. H. A. Cody, rector of St. James' Church, St. John, N. B., and a Canadian author of wide repute, delivered an address here today before the Moncton Rotary club.

The Rev. Mr. Cody, who was accorded an splendid reception, spoke on "Co-operation." The speaker very convincingly showed that the more ignorant a man is the more he is. Turning to Einstein's theory of relativity, the reverend speaker stated that Einstein, in stating that co-operation was everywhere, seemed to be right in the assertion, as it seemed to the speaker that the keynote of success to any man was co-operation. Rotary he defined as a derivation of Rota, Latin for wheel, which had a hub, spokes, tire and rim. The wheel was built for service and Rotary was brought about for the same purpose, service.

The speaker touched on Canadian authors, mentioning many of those whose success was achieved by co-operation of printers, publishing houses and the buying public. In naming some authors and poets of Canada, the speaker mentioned the names of Roberts, the speaker's former professor of English literature; Bliss Carman, Canon Scott, Quebec; Dr. Drummond and Robert W. Service—former vestry clerk of the speaker while in the Yukon.

In closing Rev. Mr. Cody advocated that Canadians read Canadian books published in Canada and written by Canadian authors. He defined co-operation as a bridge which connected the present to the future and asked that this bridge be made strong so that generations to come would be fortified in the right.

Mayor Chapman presided and in extending the vote of thanks to the speaker stated that he felt as did others, that it was an inspiration to hear Rev. Mr. Cody, who was invited to visit the club again.

POLICE COURT Frank Coleman, charged with being drunk and with begging pleaded guilty to the first charge and not guilty to the second. He was remanded until tomorrow at 2 o'clock for evidence.

Two women, charged with being drunk pleaded guilty and were remanded. They said that they were going to the Post Office to mail some letters and met a man who gave them something to drink. The magistrate said that story didn't take and they were liable to a fine of $8 for being in the street between 11 and 12 o'clock as well as $8 for drunkenness. His Honor here repeated his warning to mothers to keep their daughters off the streets after 7 o'clock.

A young fellow named Wilkins, one of those allowed to go on suspended sentence after pleading guilty to a charge of breaking and entering the store of Louis Green, is being held for investigation by the detectives. It is said that one of the articles taken from the store was a revolver and that it has not been returned. It is said he alleges it was thrown away.
