6 ROOKIES HOME

Giants Beaten Again—Sis-
ler Five Times Up, Goes Hitless.

New York, March 27.—The melancholy days have arrived for the young baseball men who went south in glory as members of the world champions. Manager Huggins has announced that before this day sees the setting sun at least six rookies will go back to the minors with strings attached. The unlucky ones are expected to include Pitchers Arguello, Dumont, Newberry, Owen and Swenson, and Infielder Rea-Fern.

Yesterday was another sorry day for New York's baseball representatives. At Clearwater the Robins were smacked for the third consecutive day, this time by the Cardinals, who won 10 to 7.

Giants Lose Again.

Walter Johnston, pitching for Washington against the Giants at Tampa, cut down Groh, Frisch and Kelly while three men lingered on the bases, and although the Giants got away to a five-run rally after Johnston left the mound, they were unable to score. Johnston had picked up six runs in the second inning by hitting Geary soundly. Washington won 7 to 6 and the game marked McGraw's fifth defeat in six days.

Yankee regulars and rookies played a scoreless tie under a blazing sun at New Orleans. Wallie Schang returned to uniform and hitting practice after being out for a week with a cracked rib.

With three young pitchers from the minors, Huffing, Ulrich and Lefty Ross, taking turns on the mound, the Boston American League club gave the San Antonio Texas Leaguers an 8 to 6 beating yesterday. The Boston Braves battled to a 1 to 1 eight-inning tie with the Yankinns.

Sisler Hitless.

St. Louis Americans marked up their fifth victory over the Mobile club yesterday. Sisler went hitless in five at-bats.

Ray Kremer, pitcher from the Oakland club of the Pacific Coast League, signed a contract with Pittsburgh yesterday.

With four wins over the Toronto club of the International League, the Detroit Tigers will again meet the Leafs today. Yesterday's game with the Tigers won 18 to 2, was featured by six home runs, five of them by Detroit.

The Indianapolis team, which defeated Cincinnati, Washington, Brooklyn, and the Giants, lost to Cleveland 10 to 0 yesterday. Making his debut, Guy Morton, dean of the Indian hurlers, held Indianapolis to one hit for five innings.

The ace fell in the camp of the Chicago Americans yesterday, lopping off Jobb Manning Innan, infielder, who came to the White Sox from Louisville, Ky. The barnstorming Chicago Nationals trailed by rain five days got the jump on the elements and took a five inning 4 to 1 win over Oakland, before the storm broke yesterday. The White Sox will play the Philadelphia Nationals at Leesburg today.

Hughes Has Recovered
From Oil Poisoning

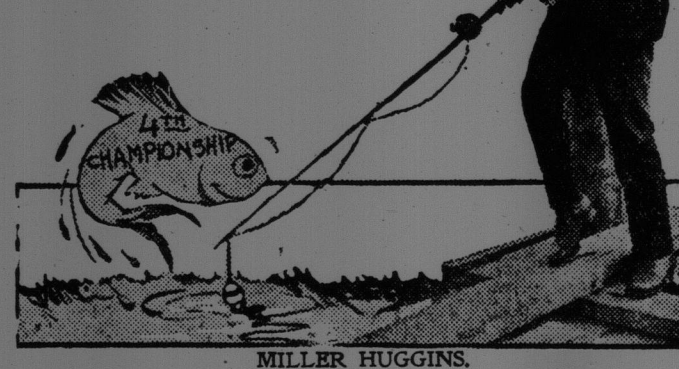

Lloyd Hughes has returned to the cast of Frank Lloyd's first National epic, "The Sea Hawk," following 10 days of severe illness caused by a cold, and oil poisoning, contracted during the filming of night scenes off the coast of California. After a night of unconsciousness and several days of extreme suffering, Hughes rapidly improved, but, because of fever blisters which broke out upon his face, could not return to the studios. But, returning to the Lloyd set, Hughes made up for lost time, especially in certain scenes laid in Penrow Hall, where he partook of a husky percentage of the "property" food in an effort to catch up on his eating.

Huggins Is Finishing For Fourth Pennant

Here we have Miller Huggins fishing off the wharf at St. Petersburg, Fla. While the diminutive leader of the Yankees is patiently waiting for a nibble at the ball, he is probably doting on his chances of landing a fourth championship.

No American or National League manager has ever won four pennants in a row. Seven times in the National and twice in the American, has a manager landed three successive championships. Huggins Jennings is the only other American League manager aside from Huggins, to turn the trick.

HOFF OF NORWAY
ALL-AROUND STAR

Has Bettered Last Olympic Marks in Pentathlon and Decathlon Events.

As the track and field events stand out in the future of the Olympic Games, so do the pentathlon and decathlon championships stand out as the big events of the track and field programme, and when the athletes of nearly every nation in the world gather at Columbus this summer it will be the all-around championships which probably will carry the most interest among the spectators.

The United States had its Jim Thorpe in the 1912 Games at Stockholm to carry the Red, White and Blue shield to victory in both the big events in 1920. Hoff of Norway, however, has bettered the marks made by Thorpe in the pentathlon and decathlon events.

From time to time reports have come across the Atlantic concerning the achievements of one Chris Hoff of Norway. Judging from a comparison of records, that it will be another Scandinavian whom the American contenders will have to beat in order to win the laurels.

In the last Olympic pentathlon, Lehtonen finished first in the 200-meter run, second in the running broad jump, javelin throw and 1,500-meter run, and seventh in the discus, giving him a total of 14 points, which was a full 10 points better than Bradley of the United States, who finished second. Against the marks made by Lehtonen, Chris Hoff has made a better showing in the running broad jump and the 200-meter run, and while accurate figures are lacking in the discus and javelin events, the Norseman is said to be accomplishing excellent marks in these two events also.

Lehtonen's best broad jump in the pentathlon was a leap of 6 meters, 60 centimetres, while the best pentathlon jump in the last Olympics was made by Hamilton of the American team, 6 meters, 86 centimetres, or 22 feet 6 1/8 inches. Hoff has done 7 meters 32 centimetres, better than 24 feet. Lehtonen's time in the pentathlon 200-meter run was 23 seconds flat, which was the best time made in the event, being equalled by both Bradley and Legendre. Hoff has traveled the distance half a second faster, being credited with 22 5/10 seconds. In the 1,500-meter run, the fifth event on the pentathlon programme, Lehtonen finished second in 1920 in 4:40 1/5, the best time being made by Lahtinen, who turned in a time of 4:36. What Hoff is able to do at this distance is not officially recorded, but his efforts at 800 meters, which he has covered in 1:55 6/10, indicates that he is able to beat both Lehtonen and Lahtinen's marks.

As to the decathlon events Hoff has bettered the records made by Hamilton in the 100 meters, Vickholm of Sweden in the 400 meters, Nilsson in the high jump, Hamilton in the 110-meter hurdles, and in the 400-meter run. Hoff has cleared the bar at 5 feet 11 1/2 inches. The other events in the decathlon programme are the running broad jump, 16-pound shot-put, 110-meter hurdles, discus throw, javelin throw and 1,500-meter run. With the weights, as has been said, Hoff is reported to have obtained good distances. His speed and his ability in the high jump should give him good marks in the hurdles and broad jump events also. So it appears that the man whom the American aspirants to all-around honors must fear is the lean athlete from Norway, Hoff.

Just who will represent the United States in the pentathlon and decathlon events in Paris of course will not be determined until after the national try-outs at Boston in June, but from records which have been made by various candidates it appears as if Harold Osborn of the Illinois A. C., Bob Legendre, former Georgetown University star from Washington and Jefferson; Frieda of the University of Chicago, and Eddie Norton of the Illinois A. C. are the best prospects.

Chris Hoff set a new world's record for the decathlon when he accumulated 7,381.89 points with the following performance: 100 meters, 11 5/10 seconds; broad jump, 21 feet 6 1/8 inches; shot-put, 37 feet 6 1/2 inches; 400 meters, 32 5/10 seconds; discus throw, 100 feet 15 1/2 inches; pole vault, 10 feet 6 1/2 inches; javelin throw, 161 feet 3/4 inches; 1,500-meter run, 4 minutes 39 1/10 seconds. In comparing these marks with those available on Hoff it is seen that Hoff has the better performance in the pole vault, 100 meters, 400 meters and broad jump, while Osborn has made a better mark only in the high jump.

Frieda captured second honors in the national decathlon and Norton finished third, so these two men must be considered when the selection is made. The team to go abroad, however, Legendre has made some splendid marks. He has done 23 seconds for 200 meters, over 24 feet in the broad jump, 190 feet with the discus, 160 feet with the javelin, and 448 in the 1,500-meter run.

The system in scoring points is different in the two events. In the decathlon the contestant gets a certain number of points based on the merit of his distance or time, while in the pentathlon the winner in each event gets one point. Both of the all-around events will be spread over more than one day in the Olympic games. It is too much to ask any athlete to perform in all five or all ten events in one day. Lieutenant Eugene Vidal of West Point, who competed in the decathlon at the last Olympic games and finished seventh, has been appointed coach of the pentathlon and decathlon candidates by the American Olympic Committee. Last year was his first as a coach of track athletes, when he took charge of the Cadets at West Point and organized a track team that was undefeated through the season.

An Irish soldier on sentry duty had orders to allow no one to smoke near his post. An officer with a lighted cigar approached, whereupon Pat boldly challenged him, and ordered him to put it out. The officer, with a look of disgust, threw away his cigar, but no sooner was his back turned than Pat picked it up and quietly resumed to smoke on duty.

The officer, happening to look around, observed a beautiful cloud of smoke issuing from the box. He at once challenged the soldier, and ordered him to put it out. "Smoking is it, sorr? Bedad, and I'm only keeping it lit to show to the corporal when he comes, as evidence agin' you."

The question, "Can a cyclist be a Christian?" reminds a London correspondent of one of the victims of the late Rev. C. H. Spurgeon. A man who was learning the cornet, became converted and wrote to Mr. Spurgeon asking if he should still continue to learn the cornet now that he had become a Christian. Mr. Spurgeon replied that he had no objection to his learning the cornet, but he urged the convert to consecrate his cornet and his talents to God's service; but, he added, "One thing I am very sure of, your cornet neighbor cannot be a Christian."

TO BUILD TEAM
AROUND N. S. BOYS

Manager of Boston Maples
Will Only Retain Three Canadians.

Sport writers announce, says the Halifax Mail, that Joe Sheridan, manager of the Boston Maples hockey team, has informed them that he will build his team around Nedder Hurley, Clary "Brick" Morrison and Ernie Mosher, three Nova Scotians, next year. The rest of the team, according to the writers, will be let out.

All three provincial boys have played great hockey in Boston this winter, especially Morrison, who is a wonderfully improved player.

HILTON BELVEA'S
ENTRY APPROVED

Sanction of Canadian Amateur Oarsmen's Association Granted.

Sanction of the Canadian Amateur Oarsmen's Association for the entry of Hilton Belyea at the Royal Henley regatta was granted at a meeting of the executive recently in Montreal. In the minutes recording this decision, the good wishes of the association were extended to the local oarsman. It was pointed out at the meeting that the small amount of funds available from the Canadian Olympic committee would entail the raising of funds by the various clubs successful in qualifying to represent Canada.

It was also decided that the Canadian Henley be held at Port Dalhousie on July 31, Aug. 1 and 2. On the first day the programme contains all but other than those designated for Friday. Friday's programme contains the following: 140 pound four, 140 pound single, Navy League gigs; junior eight, junior four, junior four, 140 pound senior doubles, first heat and second heat 440 yards dash seniors, first and second heats 440 yards seniors, and the programme for Saturday follows: High School fours, final 440 yards seniors, senior 140 pound fours, senior fours, senior singles (8:40 p. m. eastern time), senior 140 pound eights, senior doubles, senior eights, High School eights.

Whether Hilton Belyea will be able to get back in time for the Canadian team and do himself justice is problematical. The Olympic races conclude on July 16 and only by fast traveling could Belyea be able to reach Port Dalhousie a few days before the regatta—entirely too short to give his best, as was proved last year. He expects, however, to be in plenty of time to take part in the regatta, which will be held one week later at Springfield, Mass.

SPALLA SENDS DEFI TO FIRPO

Italian Heavyweight Wants a Return Match, Winner Take All.

Buenos Aires, March 26.—Erminio Spalla, the Italian heavyweight has challenged Luis Firpo to a return match of twelve rounds, the entire purse to go to the winner, with a percentage to charity. Spalla's challenge is due to Firpo's statement regarding the United States National boxing championship, which he made them the most feared team in the east. Bangor worked hard and every score was greeted with generous applause from the 200 or more spectators. All the local boxers, defeated the Young Judeans, a local team of Jewish boys who did very well considering the lack of practice they have been able to obtain this season. The score was 20 to 6.

MANY BOWLERS
ENTER TOURNEY

Maine to be Represented in World's Candlepin Championships in Boston.

Boston, March 27.—Maine will send a large delegation to the world's championship candlepin bowling tournament, to be held at the Arena from April 7 to April 19. The bowlers will arrive here April 18 and will compete in all three classes, individual, two-man and five-man teams.

On Patriots' Day, the Maine delegation will attend the finish of the B. A. A. Marathon race and also the Red Sox-White Sox game in the afternoon.

Outside bowling centres are making up special parties, for plenty of zip and pep is assured when these out-of-town bowlers compete for the handsome prizes offered in the tournament. The many fine features in connection with the Midway provide plenty to catch the fancy of the women and children.

BANGOR "FIVE ACES"
LOSE TO TROJANS

Visiting Basketball Team is Outclassed by Local Maritime Champions.

The Trojans, senior basketball champions of the Maritime Provinces, continued their good work last evening when they defeated the Bangor "Five Aces" by a score of 55 to 19. The game was played in St. Vincent's gymnasium and was witnessed by a fair sized crowd of fans. The locals' great combination playing, accurate and snappy shooting and aggressive defence proved too much for the visitors from Maine and they were practically on the defensive throughout the game.

The visitors held the score down in the first half to 18 to 9 while in the second half the Trojans scored 37 points to the Five Aces' 10. Gordon Wilson opened the scoring with a dazzling alidshot but the visitors came back and for a while the score crept up on fairly even terms when toward the close the locals spurted and drew ahead.

In a preliminary game, the Central Baptist team, junior provincial champions, defeated the Young Judeans, a local team of Jewish boys who did very well considering the lack of practice they have been able to obtain this season. The score was 20 to 6.

Following the game, Miss Audrey Kerr, student of Les Kerr, entertained the visitors at a private dance in the Venetian Gardens. The two teams also were entertained at a dance in the Jewish Hall.

DECLINES TO RACE
AROUND THE WORLD

Major-General Patrick, chief of the Army Air Service of the United States, has declined a suggestion made by Lieutenant Colonel L. E. Brooms, of the Royal Air Service, that the British and United States around-the-world fliers enter into a competitive race. The proposal was not made as a challenge, but solely in the interest of the sporting character and value as publicity propaganda.

General Patrick telegraphed Colonel Brooms, then in Ottawa, as follows: "Date of departure of your flight from starting point so involved with laying down of supplies and schedule of steamer sailings that it is impossible to accede to your sports proposal. Our best wishes for the success of your daring undertaking."

Secretary of War Weeks reiterated yesterday that it was not the object of the army flight to race around the world or attempt to make any great speed.

"They are going out," he said, "to blaze a way that may be followed as the world around the globe much in the same manner as the Lewis and Clarke expedition once crossed this continent."

The official purpose of the American flight, as outlined by the War Department, is to gain for the Air Service added experience in long distance flying.

OWNER OF SINGLE
G. SUES FOR $3,000

Claims That Amount for a
Big Race Held Three Years Ago.

Hartford, Conn., March 27.—An echo of the famous Single G-Peter Manning race, the so-called "battle of the century" that ended in a fizzle and nearly disrupted the Connecticut Fair Association's board of directors, was heard this week when William T. Egan, at the time the owner of the single G, placed an attachment on Charter Oak Park to recover $3,000.

The race was held in connection with the Single G for the dual purpose of the fair association at Charter Oak Park three years ago. It brought together the two champions of the turf, Single G, pacer, and Peter Manning, trotter.

Peter Manning won the race in time that was not at all satisfactory to the thousands of spectators, or to the association. The trotter led the pace in the first half of the race, but in the second half he was out of the race, and the pacer won by a mile in two minutes, it was claimed.

At a meeting of the association held a few days after the race, the $3,000 due Single G for the dual purpose of the fair association was ordered held up, pending an investigation. The directors announced that the race was unsatisfactory.

NEW RACING PLANT
IN CONSTRUCTION

Work on New Track is Progressing—Open Next January.

Miami, Fla., March 27.—(United Press)—The new racing plant of the Miami Jockey Club will be ready for operation next January, officials stated in announcing that reservations had been made by the Sinclair, Loft, Whitney, Couden and Vanderbilt stables.

Altogether there will be seven stables, with 30 single stalls, and 13 stalls with 60 stalls. Actual work on the new track is progressing nicely, although it will require at least six months before the track will be ready for use. The front stretch and the two turns are being made 80 feet wide, and the back stretch 65 feet wide. This width is because of the ruling of the American Racing Association, that each horse be allowed five feet at the post.

Very effort is being made to have the track completed by November 1. The season on the Maryland and Kentucky tracks will close at that time, and owners will be ready to ship in their string of horses then.

BRITAIN'S STAR
GOLFERS TO MEET

Coming Event is Exciting
Much Interest in England's Sport Circles.

London, March 27.—(A. P.)—On the women's sport horizon no coming event is exciting so much interest as the renewed rivalry between the two golfing perennials of Britain, Joyce Wethered and Cecil Leitch, except perhaps, the prospective centennial battles at Paris and Wimbledon between Suzanne Lenglen of France and Helen Wills, the young American champion.

Since she twice met in the finals of the 1921 Open, Miss Leitch, 9 and 7, in the finals for the women's championships of 1922, Miss Wethered has been supreme among women golfers. Meanwhile, in the final of the French championship at Fontainebleau, and at another time in a county match.

Only five women, other than Miss Leitch, have defeated Miss Wethered in four years of almost continuous play. Mrs. R. H. Deane defeated her in 1920, Mrs. McNair and Miss Wragg the following year, Mrs. Alan Macbeth in last year's British championship, to the great surprise of everyone, and then, only a few days ago, Miss Maud Hume defeated the great Joyce's game rusty, from a score of 18 to 16, in a county competition.

There, over a period of four years, after a record unparalleled in its continuous series of successes by any male golfer on either side of the ocean. Golf observers who have watched the best men and women players on both sides of the Atlantic over a period of years, are almost unanimous in ranking Miss Wethered as the foremost woman golfer in the world. In technique and form she is regarded as second only to the young Georgian, Bobby Jones. For coolness, happen what may, no woman is to be compared with her. With Miss Leitch it is different. Being English, she is hardly to be called excitable, but she can and does reveal joy and irritation on both sides of the line, and it is an interesting day when they tee off together again.

BOY CONSTRUCTS A NOVEL GRANDSTAND

Only Eleven Years Old, But Has an Eye for Business.

Dallas, Texas, March 27.—(United Press)—One of these days, within the next twenty years, certain magazines that feature successful business men's careers may well be filled with the achievements of Thomas Haggard of Dallas.

Just now Thomas is 11 years old, but already he shows the foresight of a successful business man. For Thomas has capitalized his brains and a big oak tree into a thriving business venture.

The venerable oak, with large, spreading branches, stands just outside the fence surrounding the Dallas Texas League baseball park. From these branches Thomas, who is an ardent baseball fan, and his playmates, have watched all the games played in the park and cheered their favorite players.

Subsiding in the shade of the big oak, why not nail short planks in the branches, thereby affording fairly comfortable seats, take over the oak tree concession and charge 10 cents admission, instead of rather, at once?

This Thomas did. Seats are accessible by means of a long ladder. Thomas cleared away the hiding branches and nailed up the planks for the choice seats. His own "office" is a board at the lower fork of the tree, where the ladder reaches. Each youthful fan pays Thomas a dime and then scrambles for the best available seat in the tree.

During the baseball season Thomas does a good business, averaging a dollar or more a day. On Saturdays, when the boys don't have to attend school, the big tree is dotted with shrill-voiced fans.

Thomas' success has not been easily acquired. His two good fists have prevented other boys from taking over the unusual concession. If any boys attempt to "crash the gate," Thomas from his perch hauls up the ladder and because the tree trunk is slippery, with no friendly limbs, it is next to impossible to scale the tree. Thomas' battles are frequent, but so far he remains the sole magnate in charge of the big tree.
