FIRST EDITION. OTTAWA BULLETIN.

THE OPPOSITION TO THE NEW TARIFF. THE NEW TARIFF.

It is considered to be a strongly protective tariff in its character.

The new tariff which makes quite a number of important changes in the existing duties on goods imported into Canada is now the subject of a great deal of comment among business men generally.

The general opinion with regard to the changes in the duties on flour and cornmeal is that the prices will not be materially affected.

The opinion of a few of our prominent merchants on these features of the tariff, as expressed to a Gazette reporter this morning are as follows:

Mr. W. W. Turnbull, in speaking of the new tariff, expressed the opinion that the decrease in the duties on molasses would be a benefit to the country.

Mr. C. H. Fairweather, of the firm of Hall & Fairweather, said that as yet there had been no change made in the duties at the custom house.

Mr. J. M. Crocker, of the firm of J. M. Crocker & Co., said that the decrease in the duties on molasses would be a benefit to the country.

Mr. J. M. Crocker, of the firm of J. M. Crocker & Co., said that the decrease in the duties on molasses would be a benefit to the country.
