Miramichi and the North Shore, etc.

LEAVE YOUR WOODS TO W. T. HARRIS to handle. He guarantees satisfaction and your wood will be returned in one week.

YACHTING—The Miramichi Yacht Club has a race on Saturday for the Grand Cup. It will be sailed over the Newcastle course.

THE "ADVANCE"—is for sale at Johnson's Bookstore and the circulating library. Damaged building, next door to the Telephone Exchange.

AN ATTRACTIVE FRONT—Mr. E. A. Strong's store front on Grand Street has always been noticeable as one of the best in town. It has been so improved by his doing the last week. Messrs. Johnson & Son have just coloring work upon it.

MIRAMICHI MARKET NOTES.—No experiment in buying from us. We always send out the best stock and work that can be obtained. No order too small, none too large. We are watching the market very closely and the subject of currency work.

J. H. LAWSON & Co., Chatham.

THE COUNTY AGRICULTURAL SHOW and ploughing match on the Pallan farm to-day, ought to attract a large number of visitors. The exhibits slowly entered are numerous. Refreshments and a dinner will be provided on the grounds. The imported pure bred stock purchased at the recent government sale in Fredericton is to be shown at three o'clock.

AN ALARM OF FIRE, or rather two or three alarms were caused by Mr. John Pearson's house in the eastern end of the town taking fire from sparks, the origin of which is differently stated by different people. It was put out by seven men with buckets. The fire authorities held the engine back, as they thought the alarm was one of the kind that has been lately coming from that part of the town.

PERSONAL.—Mayor Benson who has been making a holiday tour in the upper provinces, is home again.

Mr. Geo. U. Hay was in town on Saturday.

Mr. Moore Kelly is in town.

Mr. J. D. Chipman, assistant freight agent of the C. P. R. was in town last week.

Mr. Isaac, Chief Supt. of Education, New Brunswick was in town last Thursday evening.

HIS OLD THOUGHTS.—One of the old contributors appears to have got into the "barber's chair" of the Advocate's sanitation and is allowed by the nominal editor to employ the usual obsolete language towards the editor of the ADVANCE, all of which shows that certain old sores still rankle. We recommend a period of seclusion to last week's writer and wish him a little rest of mind. His name appears to have been omitted.

AGRICULTURE.—Northumberland Agricultural Society purchased, through Messrs. Geo. P. Seale and Geo. E. Finesse, a deluxe for the purpose, nearly $900 worth of improved pure bred stock at the recent government sale in Fredericton. The animals consist of 2 Ayrshire bulls, 1 Ayrshire heifer, 1 shorthorn Durham bull, 2 Holstein heifers, 2 Shropshire and 2 Leicester rams. All these but the Leicester ram will be sold on 3 p.m., today on the Exhibition grounds.

CANADA EASTERN LOCAL TIME TABLE.—The following are the Canada Eastern Railway between Chatham and Chatham Junction to connect with Intercolonial Express, as follows:

GOING SOUTH.—Express leaves Chatham at 3:25 a.m., returns to Chatham at 11:10 p.m.

GOING NORTH.—Express leaves Chatham at 9:40 p.m., returns to Chatham at 1:40 p.m.

Wormwood's Monkey Theatre.—Prof. Wormwood and his wonderful troupe of trained monkeys will play at the Grand Hotel two days, commencing Friday, Oct. 12th. In addition is added the Queen's Jubilee Procession and Prof. Harry J. Daniels and his wooden family. It is a great show.

Mrs. Harrison's Concert.—Nearly all the reserved seats for Mrs. Harrison's concert, which is to take place in Messing Hall, Chatham, tomorrow evening, are sold. The entertainment is commencing to be an excellent one, as there are numerous attractions besides the numbers on the programme that are to be rendered by Mrs. Harrison herself. Amongst these are Miss Hesse of Montreal, so favorably known to many Miramichi people as a violinist, Mrs. Chas. Sargeant, Miss Edgar, Miss Ouellet, Mrs. H. W. Allen, Mrs. S. McEwen, Mrs. Linda Patten and Mr. A. E. Miller.

Honesty.—Mr. Editor—What is meant by the World pleading that if there is a change in the Council it will remove honest men? Nobody has claimed that the deal supplied to Chairman Loggie's street committee was not honestly secured, and nobody has charged anything improper in connection with the supply of bricks for the public building, or of spikes, etc., by the chairman of the fire committee for street service.

Nobody has questioned the honesty of the Council contracting to pay $12,750 for a building which cost out at least $15,000 when they know that they had only $10,000 with which to foot the bill.

Everybody might question the safety of the principle involved in some of these matters, but so far little has been done in that direction.

What's the motive of the World in challenging criticism on the subject, just now?

Lucky Sportsman.—A gentleman from Melville, who was in St. John's on Monday, says the New Brunswick is growing in favor with American sportsmen. Already he says there have been more sportsmen in our woods than came together last year, and they are all having good luck. One party who had been in the Miramichi woods for sixteen days brought out three heads of big game and could have got more if they had wanted to shoot all the moon and caribou that fill in smaller. The crop throughout this and adjoining county of Cumberland is at least an average one, and he thinks the farmers will find more hay than last year when they have it all gathered in. The wheat will flourish with their broad leaf some of these days. The crop on the lower marches is not quite so good as last year; on the upper marches it is reported much better.

Rochester News.
 RICHMOND, Oct. 4.—In the second trial of Kinella before the circuit court, the jury disagreed again. Judge Lusk has granted an order for another trial to take place at the next sitting of the court, Kinella was released on bail on Saturday. Loggie found guilty of attempted rape, was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary. The court adjourned on Saturday morning.

A short investigation was held at the Marine hospital on Saturday morning concerning the death of Wilfred K. Adams of the bark Valosa. The evidence of the officers and part of the crew was taken. The officers stated that Adams had been frequently warned to stand under the tubs while they were being hoisted. On the other hand, the sailors claimed that the rigging on the tubs was not secure enough for the work. The remains were interred in the Presbyterian cemetery, on Saturday afternoon.

 In Roxborough there were a good many nominations, but all withdrew excepting four candidates for the voting for whom was as follows:

HARDWICK.
 Messrs. P. Williston, J. Sullivan and John A. Mills were nominated in Hardwick. We understand that Messrs. Williston and Mills were elected.

Ride Competition.
 A ride competition took place on the Wellington road on Tuesday. It was for money furnished by the Dominion Government and the amusement used was also provided gratis from the same source. It was called a County fair association competition, but nobody, excepting members of the active militia and retired officers were allowed to compete. The interest in the meeting was therefore, not what it should have been, and it is not to be wondered at that the showing on the score sheets was discouraging to all who wish to see the liberal encouragement which the government gives, with the view of promoting marksmanship, fruitful in results.

The ADVANCE made application to the secretary on Tuesday evening for information concerning the contest and was promised a list. He kindly furnished a list of winners' names, noting the number of the prize won opposite to them. That was all. A second application was made to the secretary in which our representative explained that the ADVANCE desired to make a report of the competition in the usual way, giving the terms of each match—the ranges, number of shots at each range, prize money, etc.—made at each range and winners. We were told that the World was furnished with the same report given to the ADVANCE, but a better one was promised. On the second occasion the secretary furnished the following:

Nervous—Rangos 200—400 yards, 5 shots at each.

1. P. J. James McDonald, 73rd Bat., 33
2. W. McDonald, 33

As to the remarks you have made concerning the idea of the loss we are to St. Andrew's Church, we feel that our Divine Master, the Lord Jesus Christ, the great King and head of the church, is not lacking in either servants or resources, and when He takes any one, He has another to fill the place, or it may be several to arrange in such order as to do his work more efficiently.

Some in their sorrow at separating, have said that "they could never feel the same in St. Andrew's Church." Let me say in answer to all such remarks, that I hope such feelings will not be entertained. It cannot be. But that I shall ever be as interested in the prosperity of St. Andrew's Church. One cannot help being so interested in an organization to which he has devoted earnestly the energy and service of right of the best years of his life. And although there may have been differences of opinion, I can honestly say that I did my best according to my judgment to build up the same of St. Andrew's Church, and preserve and extend it, as a member of the same. I might never have interfered with the progress of others, but to advance and defend our own. I brought out for a temporary effort, but to produce results that would stand the test of eternity. We may not see it now, but I trust it will be given to us to see it by-and-by. It will be no satisfaction, therefore, but the reverse, to hear that they are anything for St. Andrew's Church in the future but true progress and efficient work in the blessed cause of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Amongst those present was Rev. Mr. Bruce of Loggieville. Dr. Inch, who was the nurse which was presented by Mr. Robert Loggie, in behalf of the donors, contributed $120 in gold.

There was an impromptu party at the residence of Mr. Jas. Edgar on Tuesday evening, at which the members of St. Andrew's Church and their guests, Miss Quentin McCoy with a diamond ring, in recognition of her services to that organization.

The Hay Market.
 (SPECIAL FILE)
 Bliss Anderson, one of the largest dealers in hay in this part of the province, is among the Post that the market will not be as good this year as last. Last year, he says, the parties north of Montreal, but he does not think it will go much above $7. This is due largely to the attitude of the lumbermen along the northern part of the province. The bottom has dropped out of the lumber market, and the lumbermen will not put on a much smaller scale this season. Last year at this time Mr. Anderson says he had frequent demands from hay buyers north of Montreal, but he has had no such a single order. The two counties, Westmorland and Cumberland, ship between five and six thousand tons north, but this year the amount shipped will, Mr. Anderson thinks, be very smaller. The crop throughout this and adjoining county of Cumberland is at least an average one, and he thinks the farmers will find more hay than last year when they have it all gathered in. The wheat will flourish with their broad leaf some of these days. The crop on the lower marches is not quite so good as last year; on the upper marches it is reported much better.

Northumberland Teachers' Institute.
 The Northumberland County Teachers' Institute opened its twenty-first Annual meeting in Harkins Academy at 10 o'clock on Thursday morning, Sept. 30th, Miss Beattie Crichton, the Vice-president, in the chair. Seventy-four teachers enrolled as members. Dr. Cox, Mr. F. P. Yorton, A. M., and Miss E. McLaughlin were appointed to submit names to be placed in nomination as members of the Committee of Management. The votes taken on the names submitted resulted in the election of the following:—
 President—Mr. F. P. Yorton, A. M.
 Vice-President—Miss Louise Troy.
 Secretary—Mr. Wm. Hay and Mr. Cox.
 Additional Members of Managing Committee—Miss E. McLaughlin, Mr. King.

The president elect on taking his place, briefly addressed the Institute, thanking the members for the honor that had been his in calling him to preside over their meeting.

He was followed by the Chief Superintendent of Education, Dr. Inch, who presented his pleasure at once more meeting the teachers of Northumberland County, complimented the staff of Harkins Academy on the fine Manual Work shown in the blackboards, spoke of the increasing interest being taken in educational matters, and offered several suggestions, which, if followed, he believed would expedite the business of the Institute. He followed up his remarks by reading a paper in which he emphasized the importance of the teacher in our school system. He summed up the personality of the ideal teacher in the words of the great dramatist:—His life was quiet and the elements so mixed in him, that Nature might stand up and say to all the world, "This was a man." He urged upon the teachers the importance of study and self-culture in order to approach as nearly as possible this ideal. He was in favor of allowing teachers considerable latitude in regard to methods and even courses of instruction, regarding the favor of higher salaries, and of less crowded classes.

Inspector Mercereau, who had travelled from Carleton Place to attend the Institute, wished to emphasize that part of Dr. Inch's remarks which he urges every teacher to be a student. Never in the history of the province were so many teachers taking advantage of every means of self-education at present. This constituted one of the most hopeful signs of the times within his inspection.

"How to secure best results in Manual Work" was the title of a paper written by Sister Currie, of the Chatham Congregational Church, and read by Miss Cassidy. Sister Currie would classify the means to attain this desirable end under: 1. Heads—progressive and corrective exercises. 2. Hands—work that enthralls the pupils' taste.

Under the heading of corrective Sister Currie, I. Would accept no exercise, solved without money unless first made by the work done again and again if necessary. The child would soon feel that nothing but his best would be taken and would soon tire of being detained to do work over.

2. Would compare exercises in presence of class and have pupils decide as to the best written. This would prove helpful.

3. Would employ other devices such as: 1. Cutting out pictures around the various classes and report the most neatly written work. This would encourage the neatest workers and stimulate the lagging. Having foreseen pupils work at the board was also suggested.

This outline of what she had practiced in her own school and which she had found to produce fairly satisfactory results, Sister Currie would be very glad to be of any individual teacher to see the requirements of her own school.

The carefully written paper was discussed by Miss Sutcliffe, Mr. Dixon, Inspector Mercereau and Mr. Benson. Mr. Dixon, the Chairman, said that it was a very good paper, and that he would be glad to see it in the hands of every teacher in the county. He said that he was glad to see that we were not making the advantages of our school work for the benefit of the few, but for the benefit of the many.

of management take action earlier in the year in preparing the usual votes of thanks to the Institute's officers.

A Lively Court Scene.
 At a session of the Court of Queen's Bench, Montreal, on Thursday last, the cross-examination of Mr. Grezier, defendant in the Tarte-Grezier case was proceeding, when lawyer St. Pierre called upon the witness St. Pierre to publish the portraits of leading Liberal politicians in the "Via Illustrée." Mr. Beauchamp then approached Mr. Grezier with having pocketed this amount for his own benefit, he placed his account in Mr. Beauchamp's hands, and he must have collected between three hundred and four hundred dollars for Mr. Mercier's benefit. Witness published the portrait of Mayor Desaulles of St. Hyacinthe, but Mr. Grezier refused to publish the portraits of other Liberals and the "Via Illustrée" which the "Seminaires Religieuses" denounced.

Being asked whether he had been previously arrested in 1896 on a charge of obtaining money under false pretences, Mr. Grezier answered in the affirmative, but stated that the case fell through and that he was honorably discharged. Mr. St. Pierre was his lawyer.

A few inconspicuous words followed between Mr. St. Pierre and the witness, in the course of which Mr. Grezier said that Mr. St. Pierre asked him to be his lawyer in the present case.

"That is absolutely false," said Mr. St. Pierre.

"It is absolutely true," replied Mr. Grezier, "and my God kill me on the spot if it is not true."

"Then you are a blasphemer," retorted Mr. St. Pierre.

It was with some difficulty that the Court succeeded in putting an end to this incident.

A Mammoth Oyster.
 Mr. Geo. Carver of Pownal, P. E. I. left in the Charlottetown Garfield office St. John's, Nfld., a very large oyster. It was of an immense size, being nine and a half inches long, and was pronounced by an authority on such matters to be 17 years old. The bivalve was promptly sampled and proved a delicious yet substantial specimen.

The Pope's Health.
 Rome, Oct. 4.—The Pope, all reports in connection with the illness of the Pontiff notwithstanding, is in excellent health. The Observator Romano this evening says:—

"The bad weather of the past few days has prevented the Pope from continuing his walks in the garden of the Vatican. On Friday afternoon the Pope received the members of several distinguished families, and in an interview with a representative of the Observator Romano confirmed the statement of the Observator Romano as to the satisfactory state of the health of the supreme pontiff and emphatically denied the recent alarming reports circulated concerning the Pope's health."

Greater Convicted.
 MONTREAL, Oct. 3.—After eight days of sensational trial the libel case of Tarte vs. Grezier came to an end last night with a verdict of guilty. It will be remembered that J. I. Tarte, Dominion minister of public works, had written a French weekly paper, and that was the Sunday School book. A good encyclopedia should be in the library, and the children should be taught how to use it. The defendant was charged with publishing a violent article published in the paper in which Tarte was charged with being a booby, a scoundrel, a French weekly paper, and that he had written the Liberaire Party. Grezier was arrested in September 1897 and the trial was repeatedly delayed. The defence had a mass of evidence to produce, but the court disallowed a great portion. The verdict was a French weekly paper, in his client Grezier and delivered a powerful speech to the jury.

Mr. Tarte was defended by Mr. St. Pierre, Q. C. Judge Wautels delivered his verdict on the jury that he was guilty of libel on the defendant and was charged with being a booby, a scoundrel, a French weekly paper, and that he had written the Liberaire Party. Grezier was arrested in September 1897 and the trial was repeatedly delayed. The defence had a mass of evidence to produce, but the court disallowed a great portion. Thrilling Rescue.
 A YOUNG LIFE SAVED IN A REMARKABLE MANNER.
 FLORENCE STURDIVANT, OF BRIMSTONE ISLAND, SAVED FROM AN EXTREMELY DANGEROUS POSITION BY HER BROTHER, MR. W. S. LOGGIE, AT A RISK OF HIS OWN LIFE.

Among the islands in the Gulf of St. Lawrence is one called Grand Island. It is seven miles long and three wide. The inhabitants of this island are a well-informed class of people who devote their energies to farming and quarrying for a livelihood. In the heart of one of these islands resides Florence J. Sturdivant, the four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Sturdivant. In February, 1898, she was taken with scarlet fever, and after the usual run of the fever she was left with a weak back and gradually began to lose strength, until finally despite the best efforts of physicians her life hung in the balance. It was at this crisis, when all seemed dark, that an angel of health appeared on the scene and released little Florence from pain and suffering and restored her to strength and health. This remarkable occurrence is best told in the words of her father.

"I have been told that you will be forced to continue with the life giving medicine till you are cured, well and happy."
