LOCAL NEWS.
Rev. A. H. Nobles, of Sussex, is in the city.
The St. John Presbyterian will meet tomorrow morning.
Seven boys were reported yesterday by the police for playing ball on Canterbury street.

Members of the contingents are requested to meet at The Curtis Business University Tuesday at 8 p. m. sharp.
Mrs. Harold N. Lingley will receive at her home 146 Germain street on Tuesday and Wednesday, Oct. 15 and 16.

In a number of the city churches yesterday the Sunday work on the King street arch was severely censured.
W. Allen, who has been ill for the past three weeks, says the Frederickian Gleaner, has gone to St. John for consultation with specialists.

Mrs. J. A. Cooper will receive her friends on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 15th and 16th, at her home, 188 Metcalf street.

The second steam shovel to work on the C. P. R. extension at Bay Shore arrived on Saturday and is now being fitted up. It will be ready for work in a day or two.

Eugene Field says in a personal letter to "Little Line," who appears with the Fiddlers' woman's orchestra, of Boston, at the York Theatre on Wednesday evening, Oct. 23, my poems will be better for being recited by you.

Any ladies who wish to subscribe towards the gift to H. R. H. the Duchess of Cornwall and York are asked to forward their subscriptions to the treasurer, 4 Carleton street, by Wednesday afternoon.

The Scots companies Boys Brigade, of the different churches, will meet in their respective rooms at 7.30 this evening, and at 7.45 each will leave its quarters and march to St. Stephen's church for battalion drill.

James Campbell, one of York County's oldest residents, and father of John Campbell, M. P. F., is seriously ill at his home in Kingsclear. Mr. Campbell is now in his 87th year, and prior to a short time ago always enjoyed good health.

No. 3 company, 3rd Regiment Canadian Artillery will meet at the drill shed, Barrack square, Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in uniform. All those who expect to go to Halifax are requested to attend.

The mission band of the Portland Methodist church will give a concert in the Carmarthen street church tomorrow evening. The concert will be given under the auspices of the ladies' aid. The proceeds will go for church purposes.

The regular meeting of the board of health will be held this afternoon. It will be decided then at what time the quarantine restrictions on the West End house and Capt. Gales' residence will be lifted. It is expected that Wednesday will be the day, as the two weeks' time expires then.

Sergt. Campbell and Officer Henry have reported the following men for desecrating the Sabbath by working on the arch at the junction of King and Germain streets: Edward Bates, William Thompson, John Ross, Samuel Dunlop, Frederick Cook, William Mc-Kinley, James Lutz, Edward Bourke, James Sugrue, William Crawley and Frederick Langton.

We would advise everyone who purposes doing any decorating to make their purchases of materials not later than tomorrow. While stocks are heavy, you will find there will be a shortage in the last few hours. F. A.
Dykeman & Co. have made special preparations for supplying those wanting large quantities of decorating material, and their prices will be found to be equal to the wholesale.

GETTING BETTER.
Robert Allan of the marine department in the custom house, received word yesterday from Harvey Bank that his son Fred Allan, who was severely injured there last week, was improving. The injured man while working as a rigger on a new three-masted schooner slipped and fell. It was feared that the accident would prove fatal and his wife and mother were sent for. He however took a turn for the better yesterday, and it is expected that he will have recovered sufficiently by Wednesday to be brought home.

ROYAL VISIT.
Tickets for the Exhibition Grounds issued Tomorrow.
The Movements of the Troops—The Party at Hamilton—General Notes.

Preparations for the visit of the Duke and Duchess are being hurried forward as fast as possible. That there is need for hurry is evidenced by the fact that law in regard to the observance of the Sabbath was broken in order to push forward the work on the King street arch.

Down at the office of the government committee's secretary a good deal of work has been done, but a very large amount yet remains. There has been some delay about getting out the tickets for the exhibition grounds and building, and they will not be ready for distribution until tomorrow. That piece of news had to be gently broken to a continuous stream of visitors to the Water street office today, and a number of them said things.

The work of decorating the different buildings in beginning to take shape, and a large number of men are employed. At the exhibition grounds there still remains a great deal of work to be done, but it will be finished in the required time.

As the tickets for admission to the Exhibition Building in the afternoon, and to the Barrack Square, will not be received from the printers until late this afternoon, it will be impossible to issue tickets to applicants today.
The delivery will begin promptly at nine o'clock tomorrow (Tuesday) morning.

In another column will be found a formal proclamation, signed by Mayor Daniel, announcing that Thursday will be a public holiday, and calling upon all citizens to observe it as such.

Mayor Daniel has received a telegram from Major Maude stating that Her Royal Highness will be pleased to accept the present from the ladies of St. John, the presentation to be made at the residence of Her Royal Highness at 4.30 p. m. on Thursday, October 17.

Lt. Col. A. J. Armstrong has been appointed D. A. G. (b) in place of Major Sturges, resigned.
George Robertson Saturday receiving a tender from George Whittaker offering to feed three hundred of the soldiers who will be quartered at the Machinery hall. Mr. Whittaker proposed a good menu and his offer has been accepted. The other visiting troops will be cared for by the staff of the C. P. R. kitchen car.

Lieut. Col. McLean says that when the royal party arrive on the grounds they will be received by the troops in line of quarter column and a royal salute given. The troops will then be inspected by His Royal Highness.
After which a square will be formed for the presentation of the medals and colors. A march past in column and quarter column will follow, and then the troops will advance in review order, the manoeuvres concluding with a royal salute. The review, over, the men will be marched through the principal streets. The line of march will be determined after a conference between Col. McLean and Mayor Daniel.

Orders by Lieut. Col. Hugh H. Mc-Lean commanding the 1st, 2nd and 3rd regiments of the 1st C. P. R. are in honor of the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall:

- No. 1. Detail—Field officer of the day, Wednesday, October 17: Major W. W.
White, 3rd New Brunswick Regiment. Next day, Major Edwards, 2nd Regiment, Saint John.
- No. 2. Captain of the day, Wednesday, 16th inst., Capt. Baxter, 3rd New Brunswick Regiment.
Next for duty, Capt. Dunlop, 2nd Regiment—Saint John Fusiliers.
- No. 3. Billie—All troops on arrival at Saint John will march in line of quarter column to the Barrack square, where they will be reviewed by the Duke and Duchess.
The review will be conducted by a staff officer to their billets in the Exhibition annex.
- No. 4. Drill—The troops will parade on Wednesday, the 16th inst., in drill order on the Barrack square at 4 p. m., and on the 17th at 9 a. m.
- No. 5. Manned Bands—All bands will be manned and will parade for practice on Wednesday evening, the 16th inst., at 8 o'clock. The 1st, 2nd and 3rd regiments of the 1st C. P. R. will parade at 11 o'clock, 17th inst., at the railway station at 11 o'clock, 17th inst., at the railway station at 11 o'clock, 17th inst.
- No. 6. Meals on Arrival—Meals for the troops will be furnished on arrival at the Exhibition annex.
- No. 7. Routine—The following daily routine will be observed by the troops: Breakfast, 6 a. m.
Dress, 8 a. m.
Tea, 6 p. m.
Retreat, 8 p. m.
Tattoo, 1st inst., 10.15 p. m.; last post, 10.45 p. m.
Lights out, 11 p. m.
- No. 8. Picket—A picket consisting of one captain, two subalterns, fifty non-commissioned officers and men each from the Artillery, 2nd, 3rd and 4th Regiments will parade at retreat on Wednesday, the 16th, and Thursday, the 17th inst., on the Barrack square, under the command of the day, who will be responsible for the behavior of the troops in the city of Saint John.

By order,
J. C. MACDOUGALL, Major,
D. A. A. G.

HALIFAX REVIEW.
The Eighth Hussars, Newcastle field battery, Third regiment Canadian Artillery and St. John Fusiliers have been ordered to mobilize at Halifax to take part in the review, in honor of the Duke of York.

The total force from this province will consist of 48 officers, 300 men, 120 horses, together with six guns, eight wagons, and twenty thousand pounds of stores. Col. Dunbar, D. O. C., has arranged the order of departure of the troops as follows:

The same have been approved at headquarters:
Eighth Hussars—Staff and A and B squadrons leave Sussex at 7 a. m. 17th.
Part of D squadron leaves Hampton 4 a. m. Part of C squadron will entrain at McDonald settlement 6 a. m.; McDonald 9 a. m., and remainder Backville 11.30 a. m. The detachment from D squadron to furnish escort for Duke of York, consisting of 7 officers, 57 men and 19 horses, will entrain at St. John for Backville 6 a. m. 17th.

Tenth field battery—Five officers, 25 non-commissioned and men, 50 horses will leave Newcastle 7 p. m. 16th and reach Halifax at 9 next morning.
Third regiment Canadian Artillery—15 officers, 225 non-commissioned and men, three horses, will leave St. John 5 p. m. 16th.

22nd regiment Fusiliers—23 officers, 285 non-commissioned and men, four horses, will leave St. John 5 p. m. 16th.

ROYAL PARTY AT HALIFAX.
HALIFAX, Ont., Oct. 14.—On board royal train.—The royal train pulled out of Niagara-on-the-Lake in two sections this morning, the governor-general's carriages leaving at 8.30 and the Duke and Duchess' renewing the passage through western Ontario at ten o'clock.
There was a quiet send-off given the royal pair as the second section left the station. The visitors stopped a few minutes at St. Catharines, where there was considerable cheering. The town was gallantly decorated with bunting in honor of the visit of the Duke and Duchess.

At Hamilton a stop of over three hours was made, the royal visitors arriving at that city by noon. The weather, which had been cloudy and disagreeable during the early part of the day, had cleared and the sun was shining brightly when the royal carriages rolled into the station. Here also the decorations were general and the whole of the population seemed to have turned out. Many of the public buildings presented a very handsome appearance. The 4th Field Battery, stationed at Point Hill, fired a royal salute on the arrival of the royal train at the Stuart street station, which had been handsomely decorated. Here the Duke and Duchess were received by Mayor Hendry. The royal procession was then formed and proceeded to the city hall by way of Stuart and James streets. Civic and other addresses were then presented and the members of the royal party were loudly cheered as they left to take luncheon at Holm-stead, the residence of William Hendry. After luncheon the Duke and Duchess and other members of the royal suite proceeded to Victoria Park, where His Royal Highness surrounded by thousands of spectators, presented the colors, the gift of a Canadian organization, the Daughters of the Empire, to the 18th Regiment of Infantry.
After this the royal progress was resumed to the Stuart street station, where the departure was made between three and four o'clock. Running from Hamilton the royal train will pass through Toronto this evening, stopping only for a few minutes. It will remain at Belleville for the night.

GENERAL NOTES.
The address to the Duke and Duchess of the municipality of the City and County of St. John has been completed. It is very beautifully engrossed on parchment paper by T. H. Bel-year, of the customs, and bound in heavy morocco by R. Heans. The design and execution are very creditable to all concerned.

At the request of Lt. Col. McLean the privileges of the Union Club, St.
John, have been placed at the disposal of Lt. Col. Loggie and officers of the 1st for two weeks.
In the warehouse of Jaton & Sinclair Co., Dock street, this morning, the Star saw the dishes to be used on the royal table on Thursday and Friday next. They are of French China, of a lovely design.

POLICE COURT.
Several Persons Fined for Drunkenness—Shouting Boys.

Charles Daley was drunk on the 1.
S. S. floats on Saturday, and also used some filthy language. He stated this morning that he had met a misfortune this year in the loss of an eye, and might otherwise not have acted as he did. He pleaded guilty to being drunk, and believed that Officer Crawford was right in regard to the obscene language. He was fined in all twelve dollars or forty days.

George Gallagher admitted that he had been "in the fluence" of liquor, and humbled something else that sounded like motion that the case be adjourned. It was not, and he was fined four dollars, with an additional fine of eight for the language he had used.

John Donohue also thought he had been intoxicated, and was sentenced to eight dollars or twenty days.

Charles McLaughlin, who appears quite frequently, received a lecture and a fine of eight dollars.

Three boys, James Scott, James Peterson and George McManman, were reported by J. A. Wood for shouting on the Marsh road and throwing stones into the fair grounds. Besides Mr. Wood two other gentlemen gave evidence to the effect that the three boys were among a crowd who were acting riotously on Tuesday last. No direct evidence was adduced that the boys had thrown stones, but it was proved that they had been shouting, and a fine of eight dollars or two months was imposed.

A boy by the name of Therval Siv-erisen was given in charge by Capt.
Olson of the ship Taurus and this morning was charged with being insubordinate and attempting to persuade the rest of the crew to desert.
The captain stated that the boy was the leader of trouble among the men and had threatened to leave the ship with the others. He had also said to the captain, "Against your mouth I could feel his pushing with my hand." Siverisen was sent to jail, to be taken on board the vessel when the sailing day comes.

The two boys Winters and Kinsella, who were arrested a few days ago for breaking and entering Robert J. Rit-ter's store on Charlotte street, were this morning brought before the magistrate. They pleaded guilty and were remanded for sentence.

The funeral of the late Matthew Harrison took place at half-past two this afternoon from the residence of his son, Dr. H. Harrison, 15 Brunswick street. The body was taken to the cathedral, where the funeral services were held by the Rev. Fr. Connelly. Interment made in the new Catholic cemetery. There were no palliars.

Str. Oruso, from this port, which left here yesterday, has reached Halifax yesterday.

DRESS SUITS.

Many gentlemen undoubtedly will desire to attend the approaching reception, who are not provided with the regulation clothes. For such we desire to draw attention to the fact that our "READY-TO-WEAR DRESS SUITS" will fill all requirements.

NOT ONLY will they be much cheaper than what is offered "CUSTOM MADE," but they will be fully as good, and can be obtained without any inconvenience of waiting. Lined throughout with silk, only $28.50.

PERSONAL.
Mrs. Isaac B. Murray will receive her friends at 150 Broad street, Thursday and Friday, Oct. 24th and 25th.
Hon. Mr. Blair has returned to Ottawa from Toronto and will leave for St. John tomorrow to attend the reception to the Duke and Duchess.
Rev. Dean Partridge, who was a passenger on the s. s. Siberian, was the guest of Rev. Canon Pilot, D. D., while the ship was in port at Newfoundland.
A. H. Chipman, of Kentville, was in town today on his way to Montreal.

HIS FRIENDS ENJOY IT.
The friends of the late John Daley, the well known Forester, and inspector of agencies for the Canadian Express Co., have lately developed an abnormal thirst whenever Mr. Coleman makes his appearance. They are also sympathetic, and he has received many unolicited testimonials and offers to set up a petting in his behalf.
All this arises from the fact that one Le Baron Coleman was lately refused a license to sell beer in a little place near the river in Lancaster. It was not the express man, but another person of the same name, Mr. Coleman's (the express man's) friends pretended not to know this, and are so eloquently and demonstratively sympathetic that he is thinking of borrowing a club.
