CARCASSES SOLD.
The carcasses of twenty-six cattle killed in the railway smash-up at Rothesay on Sunday were sold at public auction this morning at the siding near Drury Lane crossing, about a mile from the city. The carcasses were brought to the city on flat cars and will be taken away at once by the purchasers. Auctioneer Lantulum disposed of the carcasses, which brought three dollars and thirty cents each. Kane McGrath being the purchasers. There were a crew of men at work this afternoon skinning the animals and will be placed on the stage, and these doubtless will be sold first, as the price is very low indeed, being the same as standing room in the main floor. Then a limited number of gallery tickets will be offered, which represents the lowest price at which it is possible to hear the great event of next Monday. Seats still remain in the main body of the house, together with boxes, so that there is no occasion for any in the city or vicinity for missing this grand opportunity of hearing the peerless La-lan Nordica. The box office will be opened at sharp ten Friday.

ACQUITTED OF THEFT.

W. J. Cole Accused of Stealing $300 Makes a Satisfactory Explanation and Goes Clear.

His Honor Police Magistrate Ritchie this morning pointed out strongly to one, William J. Cole, the evils of drink showing him how near it came to sending him to Dorchester.

Cole, who was the bookkeeper at the camp of Wm. J. Nobles, an operator for Andre Cushing & Co. on the Allegash river, in the State of Maine, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Deputy Chief Jenkins and Detective Killen as he stepped off the express from Halifax. It seems that Mr. Nobles went away from the camp, leaving Cole in charge and with him some four hundred dollars. Cole had a row with the foreman and started for Fredericton to find Mr. Nobles and get matters settled.
He got drunk on the way and the first intimation Mr. Nobles had that anything was wrong was a report that Cole was in Chatham. He at once notified Messrs. Cushing and Cole's arrest followed.

In court this morning he told his story, which was corroborated by Mr.
Nobles and Alexander Wilson, accountant for Messrs. Cushing. He had the money on his person when arrested and made no claim to it. Mr. Nobles said Cole had been in his employ for some time and that his former position was open for him and that he accepted Cole's statement as satisfactory. Cole agreed to the money being paid over to Mr. Nobles and the trio went away happy.

$2,000 TO THAW PIPES.
Cold Snap Cost St. John that Much Extra.

The additional cost to which the city will be put by reason of the trouble in the water works system during the months of February and March will be slightly over $2,000. This was made necessary by the hire of extra boilers and the employment of an increased force of men. During the two months over which the thawing operations extended there were employed, in addition to the water works department regular force, about twenty-five men.
Half of these were kept working during the day while the other half did night work. The men in charge of the boilers were paid for a day's work $2 and for a night's work $3. Those working at night were allowed a free meal at midnight.

MERRITT LORD BACK AGAIN.

But He Left the City Before the Police Saw Him.

Merritt Lord, who has been absent from the city for some time, in fact since he shipped his ball in a case the crown had against him, paid this city a flying visit yesterday. He came in quietly on one train and left hurriedly on the next. Lord's old friends who were privileged to see him were astonished at the magnificence of the train he put on. His raiment is likened unto that of Beau Brummel or a ten-twenty, thirty cent actor. The Carleton people marvelled at the lavish display and there was much speculation as to the ways and means that provided such a sumptuous display. However, was not of long duration as he was given a tip that the police were after him and he quietly stole away.

EXPORT LUMBER SCARCE.

Local Ship Brokers Report Dull Business Lately.

Local ship brokers report matters very quiet in their business and do not look for increased business for some time to come. The last charter reported made by Scammell & Co., was the bark Northern Light, from Fuxton to Buenos Ayres, lumber, at eight dollars. It seems that the local market is bare of lumber and the shippers do not expect any quantity to be offered before July. One prominent shipper remarked to the Star this morning that all the stuff on the market last fall had been carried away by the winter port steamers.

A GREAT MELODRAMA.

Tonight the last performance of Arriva! was given by the Daly Company and all who have not yet seen this splendid performance should do so tonight. Commencing Thursday, the company will present the splendid melodrama The Fatal Card. This is one of the greatest melodramas ever written and its superior has never been seen in this city. The Fatal Card has never been seen in St.
John. At noon yesterday the theatre goers can attend with the assurance that the seats are now on sale, and a number are already taken.

S. S. MOUNT TEMPLE COMING.

The steamer Mount Temple, the first of the new Hamburg line to carry passengers to this port, sailed from Antwerp on the last day of March and is expected to arrive here on the 13th or 14th inst. The Mount Temple has on board three hundred and twenty-seven passengers, most of whom are supposed to be Hungarians.

The Mount Temple will be followed by the big steamer Montreal. It is not just sure whether this steamer will come here or go to Quebec.

DEAD AFTER LONG ILLNESS.

Mrs. John Little, of 210 Charlotte street, died Tuesday morning. She was seventy-seven years of age. About six years ago she was injured by a runaway team and she never fully recovered.

Deceased was a native of Coleraine, Ireland; coming to St. John when five years old. Her father, John Andrews, was a Waterloo veteran. Deceased is survived by five sons and one daughter.

A LONG VOYAGE.

The barkentine Ethel Clark, Captain Lee, arrived in port this morning, after a long and trying voyage. On the 28th of November last she left Apalehuahua, West Indes, for this city.
On the 25th of December she was forced to put into Bermuda in distress. She was laid up there for some weeks undergoing repairs. Her voyage from Bermuda to St. John was uneventful.

POLICE COURT.

Lavinia Bantry Holds Her Job—A Plane Matter that is Very Mixed-Up.

Three drunks were fined four dollars or ten days in the police court this morning.
Lavinia Bantry has filled many positions in this life, but her latest job has been as cook at James Brennan's hotel on Union street. Yesterday Lavinia went to the north end for a walk. The stomach was on hand and she was intoxicated. This morning she pleaded guilty and was sentenced to a fine of $5 or two months with hard labor.
Mr. Brennan was on hand anxious to get his cook back to work, as good cooks are cheap even at eight dollars.
Thomas Andrews, who was arrested on suspicion of stealing a plane from James Myles last December, told a roundabout story of borrowing the plane from a man named McKenzie.
Both men at the time the plane was stolen worked for Mr. Myles, who identified the tool as the one taken from his shop. McKenzie said he had loaned a plane to Andrews, but not that one. Andrews admitted selling a plane for forty cents, but claimed he did not steal it. The affair was rather mixed up and as Mr. Myles would not press the charge, it was settled by him taking home his property.

HOTEL SHAKE-UP.
Victoria Hotel Loses its Clerk and Standard.

There has been quite a shake-up in the staff of the Victoria Hotel during the last day or so, with the result that the pattern of this house will miss two men that have been for many years connected with the hotel.

At noon yesterday Philip Richford, who has been in Mr. McCormick's employ since a boy, severed his connection with the house and about the same time John Fraser, the wine clerk, also left.

In response to enquiry made by the Star, Mr. Richford said that the report that he was shortly to go west was not true. Mr. Richford said that while he had many friends all over the dominion he had been so long in St.
John that it was the only place he would care to live in and here he intended to remain.

NEW YORK SUBWAY ON FIRE.

NEW YORK, April 6.—The woodwork in the subway now under construction is on fire at Broadway and Fulton streets. A dense volume of smoke is pouring from the entrance to the excavation.

A large number of laborers are employed in the subway and the fire cut off their usual means of access so that it was necessary to tear up the street a block further down Broadway to let them escape.

TELEGRAPHERS STRIKE.

TORONTO, April 5.—A large number of operators employed here by the Great Northwestern Telegraph Company went out on strike today owing to the refusal of the management to reinstated the operators who had been discharged because they were instrumental in the formation of a local union, to which the company objects.
