COMMERCIAL. SOCIALIST EXMORTER MAY BE A SUICIDE
NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—Emma Goldman and certain of her followers were again alarmed last night over the reports from Cleveland that Alexander Berkman, who is telling his prison experiences in western socialist centers, dropped out of sight there on Wednesday night. Miss Goldman sent telegrams to Columbus, Cleveland, Pittsburgh, Buffalo and Rochester in an effort to get trace of him. Berkman left here two weeks ago on a tour of the United States. He has been heard to say that Berkman grows very gloomy and pessimistic at times, and has often been heard to consider killing himself.

S. S. CONVENTION ENDED YESTERDAY
Field Secretary Will Attend Meeting in Rome.
Diplomas Presented to a Large Number of Young Teachers—Several Interesting Discussions.

At the afternoon session of the Maritime Sunday School Convention yesterday, a number of interesting discussions took place. Mr. Meredith led a conference on music, and said that it was the greatest of the fine arts. In Sunday schools everyone who can should sing and the teachers should set a good example to the scholars by enthusiastically entering into the service of praise. T. S. Simms, chairman of the executive committee, proposed that the field secretary be sent to the world's convention at Rome. One hundred dollars was pledged by delegates to help pay for the trip. Three hundred dollars will be needed and the balance will be paid by the schools later. Rev. D. Hutchinson spoke on "Missions and the Sunday School Work." He spoke favorably of the good work done by the mission bands which exist in nearly every Sunday school. The conference on temperance was led by Rev. A. Lucas. Several delegates took part in the discussion. Mr. Pearce spoke at some length on county organization. He was a strong believer in printer's ink, and thought it was not used enough in the work. A. H. Chapman read the treasurer's report which was incomplete and was referred to the executive. The final session of the convention was held last evening. Several short addresses were given by the officers. E. R. Macdon presented the report of the teacher training department. Rev. G. M. Campbell presented diplomas to the graduates of this class, who are: Grace Delaney, St. Stephen; Helen A. McMurray, Ethel G. Hannah, St. John; A. Maude Doucet, Lewisville; N. B. Jean B. Peacock, Murray's Corner; N. B. Sadie M. Shaw, Pembroke; N. B. Hugh M. Brownell, Little Sheppey; Gertrude Hannah, St. John; Gordon Sharpe, Pembroke; Stephen H. Dignan, St. Anthony; P. E. I. B. Braumbe, Albert G. Bailey, St. John. A resolution was drawn up thanking the officers of St. Andrew's church for the use of the school rooms during the convention. Robt. Reid thanked the delegates for the support given him as president. Rev. D. Lang pronounced the benediction and the convention was ended.

TOY MAKER ARRESTED FOR STEALING FROM HARVARD
GARDNER, MASS., Oct. 26.—On suspicion of being implicated in the larceny of jewelry and clothing from Harvard University dormitories in Peabody, 100, Lester Lake, aged 25, employed in the toy factory of A. O. Spaulding, was arrested tonight at the request of Cambridge officers. Lake accompanied Captain Hurley and Inspector Sheehan, of Cambridge, to Peabody, where he denied knowledge of the thefts. According to the Cambridge police, articles valued at $1,200 were stolen from Harvard dormitories in a series of robberies early last year, and a watch sent to Lake's home in Peabody was found in a Boston pawnshop in his arrest. Lake said that he did not steal the watch, but bought it in Peabody. He has lived in Boston but that his home is in Wisconsin.

GERMANY UNFAVORABLE TO CUBAN ANNEXATION
BERLIN, Oct. 27.—German comment on the proposition of the annexation of Cuba by America is generally unfriendly, revealing an antipathy toward the United States.

The motives of the American Government are described as base and selfish and inconsistent with those noble principles which are theoretically supposed to animate the American people.

The two main features of the comment are the conviction that the American occupation will be permanent, and the belief that the American annexation will promote the commercial interests of the United States at the expense of European competition to such an extent that European exporters may abandon all hopes of successful operations in Cuba.

INFATUATED COUPLE DIED TOGETHER

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—Louis G. Hampton, assistant secretary of the United States Trust Co., of this city, shot and killed Victoria I. Tackow, a beautiful young woman, in the Hotel Crillon in West Ninth street last night and then committed suicide. Hampton was infatuated with the woman and they had been seen together many times during the past month. They had been at the hotel where the tragedy occurred since early yesterday. Whether it was the result of a pact between the man and woman to die together has not been determined, but the circumstances seem to show that the young woman had agreed to die with her companion. Hampton leaves a wife and two children. Miss Tackow was 29 years old and lived with her father and invalid mother. She was employed in a Fifth avenue department store. The United States Trust Company, of which L. G. Hampton was assistant secretary, is one of the largest and strongest trust companies in New York. Ex-secretary of the U. S. treasury Lyman J. Gage, was its president until recently.

A TICKLISH QUESTION FOR THE VATICAN TO DECIDE

ROME, Oct. 26.—Cardinal Merry Del Val, papal secretary of state, today returned Herr Von Tschirschky's visit of Thursday, and they conferred at length on the German order to teach children in German-Poland religion in the German tongue, which has brought forth a strong protest from Archbishop Stabilewski, of Posen.

The Vatican is said to be considerably embarrassed over this question, wishing to retain Germany's friendship and yet not desiring to disavow Archbishop Stabilewski's protest.

FRENCH CABINET'S PLAN TO CONQUER THE CLERGY

Any Persons Holding Office Under a Foreign Government May Lose Their Rights of Citizenship.

PARIS, Oct. 26.—A drastic measure against the rebellious clergy, according to well informed persons, has been decided upon by the cabinet, which intends to deal with them as foreign officials. It is understood that the Government declaration at the reassembly of parliament, Nov. 5, will contain a proposition to extend to the clergy the clause of the enactment of June 25, 1888, which declares that Frenchmen holding permanent office under a foreign government lose their French nationality and right of citizenship if they refuse to resign within a fixed period when called on to do so by the French Government. Should parliamentary powers to this effect be obtained, these persons say, it is not the intention of the government to apply them unless acts by the clergy assume the character of open rebellion or are of a really grave nature. Their simple refusal to form cultural associations will not be considered a sufficient motive for proceeding to the extreme limits of the measure.

It is stated that the Sarrien cabinet, before its resignation had fully agreed upon the proposal of this measure, but hitherto the secret has been closely guarded. In clerical circles it is understood that the Government's action is intended for the purpose of promoting a schismatic movement in the church.
