It was nearly nine o'clock when the alarm was sent in by Policeman William White. Some say the fire was discovered in the partition or wall of of safety. Mr. Wetmore valued his James Quinn's barn, to the rear of Quinn's house, situated in the centre of the burned district, while others say is $1,000. Upstairs Mrs. Elizabeth it started in the Chinaman's place. Access to these properties is gained by a large alley, running from Paradise fire. Mrs. Quinslar was visiting friends row, next to the Mission Church school house, to the I. C. R. tracks in front of owned by Mrs. Quinslar. She carried the elevator. Several people were no insurance on her furiture, which present when the flames were first Whn they gave the alarm the save it. I. Komiensky with his family lived in the two upper flats, and also kept odgers. He met with considerable loss to his furniture and household effects, which were thrown about in every direction, in the frantic attempts to save them from the flames. He had no insurance.

The building adjoining this one, which is also owned by David Corkery, was badly gutted both by fire and water. On the ground floor was situated the store of Miss Hannah A. Mc-Carthy, milliner, which was completely flooded with water, and the shoe store of D. Brown. Most of Miss Mc-Carthy's stock, however, was taken out and up the street to the barber shop of Charles O'Hara, her brotherin-law. Miss McCarthy said yesterday morning that she carried insurance, but was not then in a position to say just how much, or to what extent she had suffered.

Brown's store was also flooded, but little damage was done by fire. The partition at the back was burned and here. About two o'clock a fire was discov ered in Mr. Robertson's barn, adjoining Thos. Dean's barn on Pond street. Here a window had been removed and a quantity of inflammable material was ignited and thrown into the barn Fortunately there was no loose hay about and the fire burned itself out on the floor.

About two-thirty Mrs. W. C. Day, of No. 186 Paradise row, saw three med attempt to ignite the old Jardin barn, standing near a vacant lot on Paradise row.
