

KILLED FIANCE AND HIMSELF

Lovers' Quarrel Causes a Double Tragedy

Asasola and His Victim Were Both Italian - Crime Occurred Near Scene of Holmes Murder

KINGSTON, Mass., Aug. 2.—After a lovers' quarrel today, Miss Vezzina, an Italian girl, living about half a mile from the centre of the village, was shot and killed and her assailant then committed suicide. It is believed that her persistent refusal led her lover to commit the deed.

Zecchi and the Vezzina girl went to the scene today with another Italian named Alfredo and a woman whose name is not known. Both of the latter came from New York. The quartet returned to Kingston about five o'clock this afternoon and all went to the Vezzina house, where the crime was committed. The family, consisting of the girl's parents and her four brothers and four sisters, were away.

A few minutes after arriving there Zecchi began to urge the girl to go with him to New York, but she refused.

The pair went back into the kitchen, where the arguments continued, but no high words were heard. Suddenly there was a shot from the room where the two were standing, followed by another and then by the crash of breaking glass. They rushed into the room and found the girl lying on the floor bleeding profusely from wounds in the arm and breast, while the floor was blotted with blood and the walls were spattered. The entire window looking out toward a back street was torn out, and looking through it, Zecchi was seen running down the hill leading to the woods. A few moments after he disappeared another shot was heard.

A doctor was sent for and the girl, who was almost unconscious, was taken to a bedroom, where it was found that one of the bullets had passed through her left breast and was lodged in her heart. No hope was given of her recovery, and at 9 o'clock tonight she was just alive.

On going out to the back of the house Zecchi's footsteps could be seen, and his long strides down the hill were plainly evident. On reaching the clump of woods his body was found within a few feet of the street, the last of his having ended his life almost instantly.

Word of the tragedy was sent to the home of the medical examiner, Dr. S. D. Hill, at Plymouth, but he was away, as was also the associate medical examiner, Dr. N. J. Noyes, and in their absence it was decided to leave the body of Zecchi where it was found, an officer being placed near it.

The affair today took place within a few hundred yards of the scene of the Holmes murder, nearly forty years ago, one of the most memorable tragedies in the history of Plymouth county.

SVEABORG UPRISING SUPPRESSED BUT MUTINY SPREADS IN THE FLEET

Two Cruisers Hoist the Red Flag--Officers Murdered--Loyalty of Other Ships Doubtful.

Czar Flees in Terror from Peterhof, Under Guns of Cronstad, Where 100 Mutineers Were Killed--Revolutionists Confident in Spite of Reverses--Outbreak at Revel--General Strike May Begin Tomorrow.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 3.—Previous reports that the mutiny at Sveaborg had been completely suppressed have been confirmed. It was reported that the mutineers were about 2,000 mutinous sailors barricaded in their barracks, which were surrounded by troops.

THE CRONSTADT SITUATION. The correspondent made a tour of the Cronstadt and connected with the bridge connecting with Fort Constantine. He saw sailors laughing from the windows of the barracks at the besieging soldiers across the way.

While passing the arsenal at four o'clock in the afternoon the correspondent heard a rattle which he subsequently learned had cut short the lives of six prisoners who had been sentenced to death by the drumhead court martial which began sitting at 11 o'clock in the morning.

CRUISER MUTINIES. The mutiny on board the armored cruiser Pamyat Azova, off the Estonian coast, is fraught with enormous possibilities. The crew of this vessel rose and killed the commander and his officers.

LOYAL SAILORS QUELL MUTINY. REVAL, Aug. 3.—The cruiser Pamiat Azova has arrived in the roadstead here in the possession of the loyal portion of the crew. One hundred and fifty of the mutineers have been sent ashore and imprisoned.

ANOTHER SHIP HOISTS RED FLAG. ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 3.—The crew of the Russian cruiser Asa, which was sent to Abo, has hoisted the red flag. The vessel has left in the direction of Sveaborg.

OUTBREAK AT REVAL. ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 3.—Military disorders have broken out at Reval. Details cannot be obtained.

HOW CRONSTADT MUTINY FAILED. ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 3.—Earlier accounts of the Cronstadt troubles have been largely incorrect. The mutinous sailors never went to Fort Constantine.

A GENERAL ASSASSINATED. WARSAW, Russian Poland, Aug. 2.—General Markgrafsky, chief of the gendarmes, was shot and killed by revolutionists today at Orzok, a summer resort situated about 20 miles from this city and much frequented by people from Warsaw.

A BRIGHT GIRL. A very bright little girl is Miss Hazel McKee, of Cumberland Bay, who at only twelve years of age took the entrance examinations to the Normal School for second class license and was successful in passing these examinations.

$50,000 FIRE AT ST. GEORGE

Dewar's Saw Mill Totally Destroyed by Fire

Together with 1,000,000 Feet of Valuable Lumber and About Half a Mile of N. B. Southern's Tracks

Dewar's saw mill, the property of the St. George Pulp and Paper Co., St. George, was in a few minutes last night entirely consumed by fire, while the flames spread to the adjoining lumber piles and buildings, and at twelve o'clock last night was still blazing away and was threatening an adjoining grist mill.

The fire broke out shortly after six o'clock. Ex-Mayor Dewar, the manager of the mill, was still in the building and was standing talking to the night watchman, Charles Rainie and several others, when the watchman noticed smoke coming from the boiler room. He immediately ran for the hose, but before he had returned, a few minutes later, the mill was a mass of flames. It is estimated that from the time the fire was observed until the mill was consumed was not over a quarter of an hour.

The fire is thought to have originated in the sawdust with which the furnace in the mill were fed. The destruction of the mill will throw fifty hands out of employment.

The number of people who lived in the threatened dwelling were away on a picnic, and when they returned the mill was consumed and everything had been taken out of the house.

The total loss, it is estimated, will be over $50,000.

JAIL FOR MINTO HOTEL KEEPER

Moncton Magistrate Another Stiff Sentence

P. J. Callagher Contested the Case but The Evidence Against Him was Conclusive

MONCTON, N. B., Aug. 2.—P. J. Callagher, proprietor of the Minto Hotel, was today sentenced by Magistrate Kay to one month in jail without the option of a fine for Scott Act violation. The accused contested the case, but the evidence was too strong. It was the first case contested in a Moncton court for some time.

I. C. R. Solicitor J. P. Sherren appeared for the defense, and City Solicitor Chandler for the prosecution. The defense presented the argument that Mr. Callagher had already been fined for the offense between the 15th and 28th day of July, but the argument was overruled and the case proceeded with.

John White, called by the prosecution, testified to having purchased whiskey in the Minto Hotel bar on the 28th day of July. Officer F. Melanson testified in reference to the service of summonses on witnesses, two of whom were not present, and Solicitor Chandler asked for an adjournment on that ground. The adjournment, however, was refused.

Provincial Constable A. W. Belyea went on the stand for the defense. He said he was hired by the town of Shediac at a salary of $1 per year to enforce the Scott Act. He testified that Mr. Callagher had been convicted at Shediac before Magistrate McQueen yesterday, but the prosecution objected on the grounds that the papers of conviction should be produced. Belyea's testimony was interspersed with a variety of anecdotes, and he was finally ordered by the court to keep quiet.

After announcing that he intended to close up every bar in Moncton, the defense asked for a dismissal of the case on the grounds previously stated. Mr. Chandler, for the prosecution, asked for a conviction, on the grounds that there was nothing to show that the conviction returned at Shediac yesterday was for an offense committed on July 28, the date of the violation in the present case.

Magistrate Kay, in sentencing the defendant to one month in jail without the option of a fine, said that after the accused had been summoned to appear in the Moncton court for Scott Act violation, he did not believe that the court at Shediac had jurisdiction to summon him for an offense committed within same period. He thought the court should be held to have obeyed the summons of the Moncton court, instead of the Shediac court's subsequent summons.
