THE GRANITE TOWN GREETINGS

Crushed Coffee— what it is

By a process of crushing between steel rollers, instead of grinding, the skin, which remains in the eye of the bean after roasting, is separated from the kernel and removed by air suction, while the kernel is broken into small even grains. These grains when steeped, being free of the skin or chaff, settle quickly, leaving the liquid clear and bright, and give the true coffee flavor.

Estabrook's Red Rose crushed Coffee is as easy to make as Red Rose Tea. Directions are in each tin.

Estabrook's Coffee for Breakfast and Red Rose Tea for other meals.

Eggs Baked in Tomatoes

Select round smooth tomatoes and wash, but do not peel. Cut a thin slice from the top of each and scoop out enough of the pulp to leave a space large enough to hold an egg. Season these little nests with salt and pepper, and carefully break an egg in each. Cover the bottom of a shallow pan with hot water, olive oil or bacon fat, put the tomatoes in it and bake covered about fifteen minutes. Season with butter and serve on toast.

Stomach Agony.

Abolish the Cause, and Misery and Distress of Indigestion Will Vanish.

Can indigestion be cured? Hundreds of thousands of people who suffer from belching of gas; biliousness, sour stomach, fullness, nausea, shortness of breath, bad taste in mouth, foul breath, nervousness and other distressing symptoms, are asking themselves the question daily.

And if these same doubting dyspeptics could only read the thousands of sincere letters from people who once suffered as badly as they do now, but who have been quickly and permanently cured by the use of Mi-on-a tablets and start themselves on the right road to health at once.

The price of Mi-on-a tablets is only 50 cents, and J. Sutton Clark guarantees them to cure indigestion, or money back.

Thin or lean or scrawney people will find in Mi-on-a a maker of flesh and blood, because it causes the stomach to extract more nutritious matter from the food, which quickly enriches the blood.

How easy it is to enter an aristocratic mansion in broad daylight, gather up everything of value pack the plunder in elegant suitcases and get away in safety, although a small army of servants may be at work in the lower part of the house, was demonstrated the other day by an elegantly dressed man and his stylishly attired woman companion, who performed the feat the other afternoon and carried away art works, rugs and bric-a-brac valued at $5,000 from the mansion of William H. Davidow on Eighty-seventh street. One of the strange features of the robbery is that it is not known how the thieves obtained access to the house and that Mrs. Davidow, on her return from a drive met the thieves coming from her house, but took them for visitors, who had come to call and leave their cards. But they did not leave their cards.

"I'm no Solomon" Said

Magistrate in Despair

(New York World)

The hobble skirt was presented as evidence in court on Tuesday. The defendant came into court with the evidence under her arm.

It was the case of Mrs. Bertha Lang, of No. 81 So. 11th street, East New York, against Miss Frances Stultz, of No. 79 Sackman street, in the New Jersey Avenue Court. The women had an argument over Mrs. Lang's husband one day last week. Miss Stultz had Mrs. Lang arrested for assault. When Miss Lang said she was attacked first the judge asked how.

"She punched and kicked me," said Mrs. Lang.

It was then that the hobble skirt was triumphantly produced.

"Do you think I could kick anybody with this on?" Judge? "Miss Stultz asked as she held the garment up for his inspection. "Why, Judge, I can just barely glide along with it on, much less indulge in violent exercise. Believe me, if you ever had a hobble skirt on, Judge, you would know that you could never raise your foot in anger."

"I'm no Solomon," said Magistrate Morrow, and dismissed the case.

THE NEW REMEDY FOR

Nervous Exhaustion

Night sweats are a sure sign of nervous exhaustion. They weaken the body and depress the mind. "ASAYA-NEURALL" will overcome this condition. It feeds the nerves with Lecithin, the element required for nerve repair. Full control of the bodily functions soon returns. Restful sleep is obtained, the appetite and digestion improve, nerve vigor is regained.
