Awke from dreams to-day!
Arise three, careless sleeper.
Cast not the thought away.
Thou from a golden chalics
Dost drink the ruby wine,
Time home a study palace,
Where wealth and splender shine.

Life's page to the reads fair,
But gaze a little deeper,
And other tales lie there,
With sullen look and stolid,

His earliest prey find shelter
Where vice and misery awaiter
In hot-beds ripe for Death.

One course the ice doth run,
Nor Volge's stream nor I might

Waits sunk in sellish slumber
Securely dream ye still?
