the wounded 95% were also connected with the lines.

—The rent agitation has reached serious proportions. In Limerick the sheriffs dread to take part in evictions, owing to menaces of tenants, who are removing stock and other belongings in order to prevent their esture. There were 200 farmers engaged in this work on Saturday.

—The latest returns of the British Army show that British North America has about 1,406 Imperial troops, three batteries, an engineer company, and a line battallion.

—It is rumored that two British-Indian officers have been arrested at Moscow as pies. They had in their possession num-rous military sketches and explained their presence in Moscow by saying that their powersment had sent them there to learn he Russian isnguage.

—A Paris despatch says: Gen. Boulangovernment had sent them there to learn the Russian language.

— A Paris despatch says: Gen. Boulanguager, minister of war, has ordered this all civil and military employee and officials of the war office shall have their photographs taken and affixed to a pocket-book in which shall be inserviced the names and qualifications of the owners. These will be distributed wherever an order is given to mobilize troops, and the officials will be required to produce them whenever they present themselves at the war office, so as to prevent the ingress of strangers.

of the seal fishery f r the future. The price of seri oil has fallen from $165 to $110 per too, caused by the discovery of a chemical method of preparing oil from a roade petroleum at a very obe p rate, which sanwers many of the purposes for which seal oil was regarded as indispensable. Cheaply produced vegetable oils are also being successfully brought into competition with seal oil.
