CHINESE CASE IN POLICE COURT

M. V. Paddock said substance given him was opium—Adjourned till today.

The hearing in the case of the Chinamen accused of keeping an opium joint, was resumed in the police court Saturday morning.

M. V. Paddock testified that a bag was handed to him by Detective Barrett for the purpose of analysis. It contained a pipe, which is used by the Chinese for smoking Chinese tobacco. It consists of a metal bowl fitted with a bamboo stem. He said that he had dissolved as much of the substance found in the pipes as he could and it showed the presence of meconic acid and morphine. "The presence of meconic acid is indisputable evidence of the presence of opium," concluded the witness. The next evidence was a tin coated with a dark sticky substance which also betrayed the presence of opium. Officer Elliott gave him a dark brown powdery substance which also showed the presence of opium. The opium is smoked by placing a pill in the small aperture at the top of the bowl and a lamp is applied. Meconic acid is found only in opium poppy.

Lee Hughes, the Chinese interpreter, was the last witness. He stated that bundles of paper covered with Chinese characters were lottery tickets and the sky was the limit. The Chinese coins which were found are used all over Canada for the fascinating game of fan tan. The case will be resumed this morning. The hearing was adjourned.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS FOR THE SOLDIERS

Women's Canadian Club will assist in entertaining Lady Borden.

The executive committee of the Women's Canadian Club met Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. A. Powell and advanced plans for a war trophy exhibition, which is to take place here on October 28, 29 and 30. The members of the club will also work on the plan of supplying small remembrances to the soldiers at Christmas. Small stockings will be supplied to those who wish them. These are to be filled with small gifts to be forwarded to the soldiers. A sample stocking containing a packet of chewing gum, a pipe, small tin of tobacco, cigarettes, a mouth organ, pocket handkerchief, cake of soap, chocolates, playing cards or other card games, a story from a magazine rolled on a pencil and a cube of cream. These stockings will be collected and sent to the soldiers.

It was decided that the members of the executive of the Women's Canadian Club, the Patriotic Association and the Red Cross Society will entertain Lady Borden, who will accompany the Premier on his visit to the city on Tuesday, at the Manor House on Tuesday afternoon at 4.45.

The club will meet Friday night and these matters will then be more fully discussed.

Dr. Jackson On What's What in Foods

Cereals should not be pulverized or crushed in grinding. If they are, the particles stick so close together that the digestive fluids cannot permeate them and the mass digests only on the surface, working toward the centre. Before reaching centre of mass the starches there have fermented and changed into vegetable acids because of delay in digestive juices reaching them.

Dr. Jackson's Roman Meal and its ready cooked form—Roman Meal Nuggets—are granulated, not crushed. If cooked in double boiler, or boiler set in basin of boiling water, and not stirred after first making it, the porridge will be granular and porous like boiled rice. The digestive fluids pour through it as water through gravel. Every particle begins to digest at once. Fermentation and indigestion do not occur. Because it is granulated and contains plenty of branny waste, it cannot pack, become hard and dry and cause constipation as refined foods will. In fact, if it does not positively relieve constipation, your money will be refunded. Make your porridge, pancakes, gems and bread from Dr. Jackson's Roman Meal or use Roman Meal Nuggets—the ready cooked Roman Meal. Nuggets can be carried in the pocket or handbag to office or shop and upon outing trips or sports of all kinds. They prevent fatigue. Both at your grocers 10 and 25c. cents.—Robt. G. Jackson, M. D.

Mrs. G. A. Kuhring arrived in the city Saturday morning, after spending the past five months in Ottawa and will spend the winter in St. John.

RECRUITING MEETINGS CONTINUE GOOD WORK

Excellent addresses in Imperial Theatre and Ludlow Street Baptist Church—Three more recruits were secured Saturday.

SATURDAY'S HONOR ROLL

Thomas McAvity, St. John.
James Burgess, Lancashire, England.
John James Campbell, Boston.

The Imperial Theatre was crowded last night to hear the speeches in aid of the recruiting campaign being carried on for the purpose of securing men for the 88th Battalion. A. O. Skinner occupied the chair. The speakers were Rev. Miles Howland, Rev. Ralph J. Haughton and John Connors. The meeting was an enthusiastic one and when W. H. Golding read a message, telling of the participation of the 26th Battalion in the recent operations on the western front, the applause was loud and prolonged. The Temple Band was present on the platform and rendered several pleasing selections. There will be a big patriotic demonstration in the St. Andrew's Hall on Thursday night at which some of the pupils of John Power will give a physical culture demonstration. The Temple Band will be in attendance and a rousing meeting is anticipated.

Rev. Father Howland delivered a stirring address and his appeal for men had a ring of sincerity that must have caused every man of the young men present to consider in a serious way their necessity for action in helping the motherland.

Rev. Father Howland said in part: "I want to impress on the men of military age who are in this audience to night the terrible necessity for you offering your services to your King and country. I think you can not realize the awfulness of this universal catastrophe. This country and the Empire are in dire need of your services. I am afraid too many are indulging in thoughts of home and are not giving the war situation the consideration it requires. If you did I feel sure you would not hesitate in the performance of your duty at this critical time."

"It seems to me that although many have gone there are many who could go and take part in this struggle for liberty that is being waged on the fields of France and Flanders."

"It is an indisputable fact that Germany is the cause of this war, and is therefore an unjust aggressor, and you can feel morally sure that in taking part in this war you are fully justified before the laws of God and of civilization."

Rev. R. J. Haughton

Rev. Ralph J. Haughton was the next speaker, he said in part: "War is a terrible business. It ought to have a mighty influence over our lives to know that we are fighting for the right to be free. It is our duty to every man to back up the Empire in this great fight until Prussian militarism is completely crushed and German villany defeated and overthrown."

"Do we realize that the brave boys over there are fighting for the liberty not only of England but of the civilized world?"

"It seems to me that these facts ought to make an appeal to every man's heart that it should not require so many recruiting meetings to urge men to do their duty."

John Connors

John Connors spoke of the conscription bill as the German victory and pointed out that Canada would be the first country to feel the oppression of German rule if Great Britain and her allies were defeated. He made a strong appeal to the young men and called their attention to the fact that Canada owed such a debt to the motherland that it was nothing but the plain duty of every Canadian of military age to come to the aid of the motherland.

Mr. Connors, who has travelled extensively in Canada, said there was a feeling of loyalty and optimism all over the Dominion. He said there was no doubt in the minds of all but that the Allies would prosecute the war to a successful conclusion. But he said the matter would be a long drawn out affair if the people did not make a free response to the call for men.

Dr. Silas Alward, K. C. also spoke. The meeting closed with the singing of the national anthem.

In Carleton.

"The Duty of the Hour" was the subject of a eloquent address last evening in Ludlow street Baptist church by H. A. Powell, K. C. The usual church service was held except that the sermon was omitted. In introducing Mr. Powell Rev. W. R. Robinson referred to the fact that forty-five men associated with the Ludlow street church have gone or are preparing to go to the front.

Mr. Powell first spoke of some of his recent experiences in the United States and pointed out that American sympathy is with the British Empire and the allies in the present war. He then said in part: "I am here as a patriotic citizen. My thoughts go back to nearly 2,000 years ago when a new song was put into the mouths of the nations, 'peace on earth, good will to wards men.' Since then there have been many wars, which in many cases were looked upon as a kind of necessary evil, but gradually the world has been growing to recognize the broader view that trial by battle is immoral. European nations and the United States had settled down to the principle of arbitration as opposed to the foolish settlement of disagreement by an appeal to the sword. But just as we were priding ourselves that the scriptural prophecy that swords should be beaten into ploughshares comes a shock like a bolt from the blue, and this war has involved more serious consequences than all wars since Christendom. Who is to blame?

"The German emperor had long been considered by many to be a peace-maker, but in reality his one object has been to dominate Europe, to crush the power of Britain on the sea. Germany had the monopoly, practically, of the sciences and the arts, the speaker remarked that they had stolen from Britain only to torture innocent people."

"England had rifles for only 300,000; it hadn't prepared for war, and the wonder is the allies have not been snuffed out. Only heroism has prevented such a catastrophe."

"After referring to the Germans as a nation of plodders and not a nation of really brilliant men in the regions of the sciences and the arts, the speaker remarked that they had stolen from Britain only to torture innocent people."

Why Should You Enlist?

"Why should you enlist? I am afraid we do not appreciate the gravity of the struggle. We are up against an organized foe whose only object is to conquer, men who are not satisfied with slaying innocent people but have resorted to bestial tactics, backed up by their officers. I tell you if the German Kaiser were in my hands I would shoot him as I would a dog. He and his clique who wink at, nay, support such tactics, should be declared outlawed by the world. Now, young men, this is a terrific struggle. If disaster should befall us Germany is after one thing; that is territory for her surplus population. Which are the great countries suitable for colonizing her people—Canada, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa. You, then are asked to fight in battle for Canada. We must fight, for are we going to pull down the Union Jack for Germany? Never in this crisis, then, when his country is fighting for its very existence, I tell you that those men who have fought in this war are heroes and will ever be regarded as heroes, as protectors of liberty. To any of those in this audience who may go I say God speed you and protect you. Your mothers and dependents who may be called upon to make a sacrifice will not be neglected. Those who cannot go to the front must put their hands down deep into their pockets to protect the wives, mothers, fathers and children of those who have responded to the call. As to those who may return I say that employment should be found for them, when necessary, to the exclusion of the stay-at-homes, for the man who was ready to give of his life's blood in no noble cause should not be neglected in this respect."

After Rev. Mr. Robinson had said that the church would be available for such meetings as that held last night the proceedings closed with a verse of the National Anthem and the benediction. There was a large gathering. No recruits were signed on, but Mr. Powell's address made a good impression, and it is believed that greater interest in recruiting on the West Side will follow as a result.

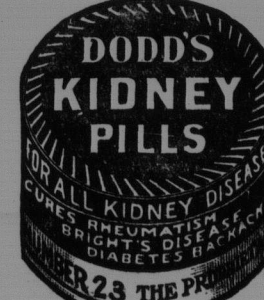

Saturday Night.

The recruiting meeting and smoker held in the Mill street recruiting office on Saturday evening was one of the largest and best attended yet held in the city. The rooms were crowded and the meeting concluded a series of meetings held every night during last week.

John T. Nuttall, who has two sons at the front, acted as chairman, and spoke with great effect. The Carleton Corner Band played several selections. This band has offered its services for the 88th Battalion and during one of the speeches reference was made to the splendid stand made by this band in volunteering. The audience rose and gave the band three hearty cheers.

Interesting and inspiring speeches were given by John C. Ferguson, Wm. Stanley and A. M. Belding. Solos were sung by Dr. J. G. Leonard and Mr. Garrett, the audience joining in the chorus of "O Canada." Mr. Dunlop accompanied the soloists.

A number of men came forward and were examined by the medical officer and received the hearty applause of

THOMAS SEEN IN ALBERT CO.

Recognized from picture in the Standard of Saturday morning.

After the escape of William M. Thomas from the county jail, Thursday night, it was suspected that he would make his way toward the border for the purpose of getting into the United States, but from a message received from Albert by The Standard, last evening, it is believed that Thomas is in Albert county. It is expected that he will be rounded up. The message stated that on Saturday morning a strange young man called at a store and purchased some cakes. He did not linger long but departed from the place. When The Standard arrived on Saturday morning and the photograph of Thomas was seen with the story regarding his escape from jail, those who saw the young stranger purchasing the cakes identified him from the picture in The Standard. The officials at Albert are now scouring the county for the man whom they believe they will get.

At the conclusion of the programme coffee and refreshments were provided by Bond and Scott, Boston Restaurant, T. Rankine & Sons, and J. W. Vanwart. Twenty-three applications were filed throughout the day for the Siege Battery and the 88th Battalion.

WEDDINGS.

Sussex, Oct. 17.—A wedding that will be learned of with much interest took place at 9 o'clock on Saturday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. James Torrence, Pleasant Ave., when R. O. Chisholm of Wolfville, N. S., was united in marriage to Mrs. Susan M. Welton, of Grand Pre, N. S. Her former husband was Rev. Sydney Welton, Long Island, New York, who was for some years pastor of the Church Avenue Baptist church, Sussex. The ceremony was performed in

ROLL OF HONOUR

Several thousand officers and employees of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company enlisted for active military duty with the Canadian Expeditionary Forces, and the majority of them are now in Europe, bravely battling for Canada and the Empire.

As particulars of Army Reservists are not available, these lists of those who have given up their lives for their country, or been wounded in action, are necessarily incomplete, and do not therefore indicate fully the extent to which the Company's officers and employees have participated in the great struggle.
